Members devoured 2,000 hamburgers, 1,000 hot dogs and 2,500 soft drinks, according to Ralph Neely, president of the association.

The annual president's dance will be held at Meadowbrook Country Club Oct. 9.

The DRC Story

HATPINS, THE SLIDE RULE, AN ABACUS AND YOU.

The Quip Is A Clever One: "Figures lie and Liars figure."

I concede statistics at times can be twisted to serve a particular purpose. It is equally true they can reveal some startling things about your Fans and your business. I recently had such an experience.

I made an appeal to Detroit Race Course fans for their views on the Twin Double. The response was amazing. I had thousands of answers. The answers were thoughtful, interesting, constructive and provocative.

The Fans indicated a 20-to-1 preference for The Twin Double.

What is the reason for the great popularity of the NEW Twin Double now operating at the DRC?

I think it is simple to explain. Every day the NEW Twin Double gives racing fans a chance at a Once-In-A-Lifetime Thrill. It blends fictional touches with real life drama.

Who wins the Twin Double at the DRC? It may be a 23-year-old Windsor housewife who, when she returned home, couldn't convince her husband she had won $48,555 on a $2 wager. Or the 22-year-old Dearborn Heights waitress, who came to the track for the first time in her life and won $14,878. Or the unemployed truck driver who had been down on his luck, and the Flint automobile factory worker who confessed he "couldn't handicap the horses" but still picked winners.

We had THREE THOUSAND, THREE HUNDRED AND SIXTY-SIX (3,366) fans who held winning Twin Double tickets last season. They shared in a payoff pool in excess of $4,000,000.

There were 35 Twin Double ticket holders who collected $10,000 or more on a winning $2 wager.

It is great to be a big winner, naturally. But I know from the comments of thousands of fans, that even those who never succeeded in picking a Twin Double winner had pleasure in just matching their systems with those of other fans.

And there are as many Twin Double systems as there are players. Some make their selections by sticking a Hatpin through their programs. Others use a Slide Rule, an Abacus, a Crystal Ball, or Tea Leaves.

The NEW Twin Double is only one of many reasons you should visit the Detroit Race Course soon.

We have a new $3,000,000 Clubhouse, which makes the DRC one of the nation's finest sports facilities. There are outstanding restaurants, "The Winner's Circle" and "The Mile Terrace," a picturesque old world tavern, "Ye Tired Old Horse Pub"; the colorful French Quarter Lounge.

There is close-in parking for 12,000 cars; new entrances to speed the flow of traffic and top racing.

We invite you to visit us soon and share in Racing Pleasure.
