

Four Die in Crash, Survivor Fights for Life

The lone survivor of a Sunday morning two-car crash in which four persons died remains in critical condition in St. Mary's Hospital, Livonia.

Township, 30, is the only one of four persons who did not lose his life in the car that was rammed broadside by an 18-year-old Detroit driver, who also died, at the intersection of Joy and Middlebelt Rds. The location is just inside Nankin on Livonia's southern city limits.

Killed instantly were Redman's wife, Sylvia, 31, Jack Fleet, 31, and his wife, Marilyn, 28, of Birmingham, all riding in the same car. Death came to Richard Targus, 18, at St. Mary's Hospital, at 2:45 a.m., less than one hour after the accident.

Hospital officials said Monday it was "touch and go" for Redman.

Detective Irvin Stoffes of the Wayne County Sheriff's Department said Targus was apparently driving east on Joy Rd. and smashed into the other car being driven north on Middlebelt Rd. by Fleet.

He said he has at least three witnesses to the accident whose versions he is checking.

David Lynch, 27, of Livonia, told officers that he was driving north on Middlebelt behind the Fleet auto and thought it had the right of way through the intersection's traffic signal.

JUDGE HARRY J. DINGEMAN, JR. was one of the top four nominees for Circuit Judge in the primary election on Sept. 14. Married with four children, Judge Dingeman is a resident of Northwest Detroit. He is being given moral and financial support by one of Plymouth's legal eagles, City Attorney Edward Draugelis (right). At 49 Judge Dingeman has a record of having served faithfully in the Common Pleas Court for more than 18 years—giving county-wide judicial service. Twice during his judicial career he has been responsible for modernizing the body of rules under which the court operates. He was the top choice in a lawyer's poll for candidates for a new Appellate Court. He is a graduate of local public schools and U of D High School and College.

During Fire Prevention Week Plymouth Fire Dept. Slates Open House

The Plymouth Township fire department plans a week-long open house celebration of National Fire Prevention week, Oct. 3 through Oct. 9, according to Capt. Barney Alast.

"We urge all residents of the Township to stop in at either of the stations, inspect the newest equipment and chat with the firemen," invited Capt. Alast.

Station No. 1 is located on Ann Arbor Road east of Lilley Road adjacent to the Township Hall.

Station No. 2 is located on Schoolcraft near Wilcox Road in the Lake Pointe subdivision.

The Township firemen will show films and colored slides of recent fires, showing the department in action during the celebration. The presentations will be made on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 7, 8 and 9 at 8 p.m. at Station No. 1.

Stan Besse
Honored for Long Service

City Engineer Stanley Besse, who has served the City of Plymouth for more than 30 years, received the coveted Samuel A. Greeley Service Award from the American Public Works Association recently in the national convention in Los Angeles.

Besse was honored for his long-years of service to a single community and the presentation was one of the highlights of the conference.

Schoolcraft Makes Plans For Bigger Evening Choir

The Schoolcraft College Evening Choir was organized in the fall of 1964 to create a community-wide choral group capable of performing the large choral master-works. This group, which includes a total of approximately 50 members, presented the Faure Requiem in April and later the Brahms Liebeslieder Waltzes with the Plymouth Symphony.

Arrangements are under way to have the Northville Choral Society join the Schoolcraft College Evening Choir. The Northville Choral Society, directed by Leslie Lee, is an old, established organization with a long tradition of performing Handel's Messiah.

The Schoolcraft College Evening Choir offers a unique opportunity to those people who wish for a more advanced kind of musical experience. To join the Schoolcraft College Evening Choir, an individual must be able to read simple music, must have had some previous choral experience, and must attend the regular rehearsals.

The choir will meet on Wednesday evenings, 7:30-9:30 p.m., in Room F-530 of the Forum Building, on the campus. The first rehearsal will be Oct. 6. Plans for the 1965-66 season include a performance of the Childhood of Christ by Berlioz during the Christmas season and the C Minor Mass by Mozart in the spring.

Although there is no registration fee required, members will be asked to contribute $4 to cover the cost of the music. Each individual joining the choir for the first time will be asked to audition to determine the section into which he should be placed. This audition will include the singing of a simple song and the sight-reading of a simple piece of music. These auditions may be completed at the first rehearsal.

Director of the Schoolcraft College Evening Choir will be Wayne Dunlop, Director of Music, Schoolcraft College and Conductor of the Plymouth Symphony. He will be assisted by Lee Elzen, Director of the Schoolcraft College Choir in Detroit, and Allen Shaffer, a member of the music staff of Schoolcraft College and organist and choirmaster of the First Methodist Church, Garden City.

Anyone seeking additional information should call either Wayne Dunlop at 591-6400, Extension 317,

IN APPRECIATION for interest in their community over and above their regular responsibilities the Livonia Lions Club presented two "Livonia's finest" L. Robert Turner and Sgt. George Gilbert with plaques. Both were selected among thousands of police candidates to attend the FBI National Academy in Washington, D.C. Turner graduated from the three months course in '69 and Sgt. Gilbert in '68. (L-R) Lion Peter Ventura, Sgt. Gilbert, Lt. Turner and President Lion Larry Gluck.

Plymouth Police Out Of License Business

The Plymouth Police Department is out of the business of issuing driver licenses. That was the announcement of Assistant Police Chief Loren Johnson Monday following receipt of a communication from Secretary of State James Hare indicating the department should stop issuing licenses and send applicants to nearby centers to issue licenses with the snapshots.

The new state code provides that a picture must accompany each license and picture taking equipment has been set up in Livonia, Garden City, Northville and in the Wayne County Road Patrol offices.

Plymouthites making applications for licenses will have to travel to one of the nearby centers — they can't be issued at the Plymouth Police station anymore.

Auto Kills Ford Road Pedestrian

A 27-year-old Nankin man died Saturday morning from injuries received the night before when he was struck, while walking on Ford Road, by a car driven by a Livonia resident.

Sheriff's deputies said that Edward Dombrowski of 34148 Francis St. was hit by a car shortly before midnight, driven by William Solberg, Jr., of Livonia.

Dombrowski died at 8:30 a.m. at Wayne County General Hospital.

The deputies said the victim was walking west near Karte in the same direction as the car which struck him.

Grand Jury Probe Enters 3rd Week

One-man grand jury investigations into the traffic-ticket "fixing" scandal in the Wayne County Sheriff's Department are in their third week as the juror, Wayne Circuit Judge Edward S. Piggins, continues to hear witnesses relate whatever knowledge they may have of the alleged mishandling.

He said this week he did not know how long the probe will last and said it could also expand to unrelated matters.

In a talk to retired Ford Co. executives Saturday night, Piggins urged all citizens to come forth with information of graft, crime, corruption or dishonesty and said, "It is his moral duty as an honorable citizen to bring it to the attention of the grand jury now in session."

Witnesses last week included the 300-pound Sgt. Paul Paciorek, star witness whose suspension had been announced for an additional 60 days, waitress Kathy Webb, 20, and members of the "Big Five"—the deputies whose allegations touched off the grand jury.

Paciorek's attorney, Nankin Justice George B. Perry, claimed last week that Sheriff Peter Buback should have suspended two other deputies as well as Paciorek and Road Patrol Inspector Dan D. Martin.

Clarenceville Teachers Study Economics

Teachers in the Clarenceville School District participated recently in an Economic Education Workshop held for the teaching staff on the opening day of school.

Guests included Dr. Thelma Herrick, Frank Johnson, Robert Van Dyke, Dick Leonardelli, Patricia Meyer and Norma Traflet, who joined school administrators Louis E. Schmidt, superintendent, and Lydia Lear, curriculum coordinator. Principals and assistant principals also attended.
