The whole Fair Ground side of Grand River at Redford has been sold out and over 20 lots have already been disposed of on the new Oak Grove subdivision. Get in on this now if you want to make something. Over 20 new houses are now under construction in Redford. Forty more will probably be built before fall. Does this mean anything to you? If so, see me at once.

THEREFORE SPARE THE CAT

Usefulness of Pussy in Nature is Here Demonstrated in a Large Number of Ways.

A lover of cats makes a new plan for them. He tells us that cats kill the field mice that rob the nest of humbees, and the humbees fertilize the blossoms of the clover, which feeds the cows that give us milk. Such is the chain of nature that the loss of any link may do grave damage. This is the way of it.

This is the babe that mother loved. This is the milk that nourished the babe that mother loved.

This is the clover that fed the cow that gave the milk that nourished the babe that mother loved.

This is the bee that saved the clover that fed the cow that gave the milk that nourished the babe that mother loved.

This is the mouse that killed the bee that saved the clover that fed the cow that gave the milk that nourished the babe that mother loved.

This is the cat that ate the mouse that killed the bee that saved the clover that fed the cow that gave the milk that nourished the babe that mother loved.

Therefore, will mother protect the cat or she will incur a dearer loss than that of the milk in the house that Jack built—New York Independent.

KNOW HOW TO INTEREST BOY

Such is Youth, That Father's Appeal Was Naturally More Potent Than the Physician's.

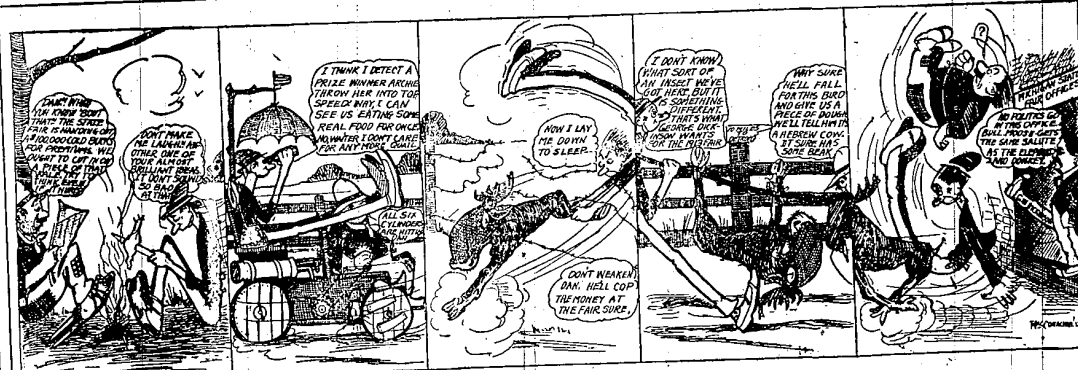

"The boy is all right," said the doctor, "but you want to talk to him and arouse his ambition. Promise him that you will take him somewhere when he recovers sufficiently to go out. Talk to him about playing hockey with the fellows. There are lots of ways in which you can interest him."

Then the doctor addressed the little chap, who was just recovering from the fever, saying:

"Come, Billy, cheer up. Wouldn't you like to go out and slide on the ice with the other kids?"

A faint smile stole over the boy's face, but that was all.

"Wait a minute, doc—I'll rouse him," interrupted the kid's father. "Look here, Bill, how would you like to go out and steal milk bottles off the neighbors' porches, drink all the milk and then smash the bottles in the street so that the automobile tires will explode?"

The child sat up and asked for his trousers.

HER LATER IMPULSE.

"Since you think we made a mistake in becoming engaged, Gloriana," said the young man, with tears in his voice, "I submit to your decision. But you will give me a goodbye kiss, will you not?"

"Yes."

He clasped her to his bosom in a close embrace and planted a passionate, lingering kiss upon her lips.

"Perhaps, Ravenel," she murmured, gently disengaging herself, "we might be making a greater mistake to—separate. If you like—we will—let matters remain as they are—a while longer—"

EVIL DAYS FOR THE STAGE.

The kind-hearted woman had given the frizzled tourist a generous supply of cold victuals.

"Haven't you any regular trade or occupation?" she asked him.

"Yes'm," he answered, with his mouth full: "I'm an actor."

"And can't you find anything to do on the stage?"

"No, ma'am; they ain't usin' any real actors on the stage these days."

NOT SERIOUS.

"You have forgotten yourself," said the maid, haughtily.

"Have I?" said the man, meekly. "I'm so glad it wasn't my umbrella."

SURE TIP.

"I am sure that Grabit has an itching palm."

"Then you may depend upon it, he isn't scratching for a living."

REMEDY.

Mr. Growler—There is entirely too much hot air in this house.

Mrs. Growler—Then, why don't you quit talking?

USUAL PROCESS.

"What possessed you to cut up the pony ballet in the musical show?"

"Isn't it the right thing to carve broilers?"

QUICK ACTION.

"Did you do anything to try and save the professor when he fell off the observatory roof?"

"Indeed, I did. When I saw him going, I begged him not to take any precipitate action."

CONSISTENT ANIMOSITY.

"Why do so many people want the press muzzled?"

"Because of its dogged pertinacity."

BEYOND UNDERSTANDING.

"He tried to kiss me. I can't understand it."

"Neither can I, dear."

"You cat?"—Sray Stories.

UNIVERSAL.

"One must graft fruit trees before they will yield anything."

"Great! Scott! even old nature's doing it!"

DIFFERENCE.

"Did the prisoner take cognizance of you in the saloon?"

"No, sir; he took whisky straight off the bar."

FOLEY'S ORINO LAXATIVE FOR STOMACH TROUBLE AND CONSTIPATION

BETTER ACCOMMODATIONS.

One of the innovations of the 1913 Michigan State Fair which are bound to make a decided hit with the women and children patrons is the move for better accommodations, such as rest tents and restful entertainment.

"Everything which can be done for the comfort and convenience of the women and the little ones will certainly be instituted," said General Manager Dickinson in discussing this phase of the management of the Sept. 15-20 festival.

"I have arranged for the equipping of a section of the grounds with big tents fitted out with clean, wholesome household furnishings, so that those who wish to remain over night at the grounds may do so in perfect comfort."

"There will also be sufficient rest tents distributed at advantageous points about the grounds, with competent attendants in charge, to care for the wants of the little folks."

"Daily musicales and lectures on subjects which cannot fail to interest women will be delivered at various buildings. The Lady Macabees have proposed to furnish speakers for this purpose, and other orders have expressed a desire to help. Solists of national reputation have been engaged to entertain in connection with the bands, and music lovers will certainly get a treat, not one day, but every day, at the 1913 Fair."
