

Current Events Related in Paragraphs

Washington

Free, sugar in three years and free wool were approved in the tariff bill by the senate finance subcommittee. The schedules now stand as they passed the house.

Following the United States Supreme court's decision surrendering the charge of murdering his wife at Lake Como, the prisoner's guards at Jersey City have been instructed to keep him under constant surveillance.

The Harvester trust won a signal victory in the senate finance committee. Hemp was put on the free list.

The United States senate passed the Kenyon resolution affecting the interstate commerce commission to make an investigation of the matter.

The coldest weather ever recorded during June in the middle Atlantic and New England states, the Ohio valley and the great lakes region, was reported to the weather bureau. That gulf states are the only territory that has been able to escape an unseasonable drop.

State control of railroads under existing law was emphatically affirmed by the United States Supreme court in a unanimous decision handed down in what is popularly known as the Minnesota rate case. The decision is of momentous importance to the country, rivaling in its effect those reached in the Standard Oil and the bacco trust cases.

Domestic

Purple persons are dead and scores injured, some seriously, following a rear-end collision in the main line of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad opposite the passenger depot at Stamford, Conn.

Four men are dead, one is missing and two are fatally injured as a result of the explosion of one of the boilers of the steamer E. M. Peck in the harbor at Racine, Wis.

Woman and her cause triumphed in the Illinois house of representatives when the suffrage bill was passed by a vote of 33 to 28. Now the bill will go to Governor Dunge for his signature, and when he signs it, as it is believed he will, Illinois will take its place as the first state east of the Mississippi river to give considerable voting power to women.

The Cherokee Indians have passed council in session at Tahlequah, Okla. for the last time, ended the historic capital building, land and other buildings to the state of Oklahoma.

Arthur Keller, a railway employee, was murdered with an ax in his home in Harrisonville, Mo., and his seven-year-old daughter was severely wounded. A blow aimed at Mrs. Keller struck the side of the bed and awakened her. Mrs. Keller leaped from the bed and, struggling with the murderer, drove him from the house.

Authorities at Denison university, Grapewin, Oe., are investigating a hazing prank which is said to have taken place in one of the dormitories. A party of students are alleged to have bound Albert Collett, nineteen, a survivor of the Titanic disaster, and painted his forehead with white paint. He will be discharged for life.

Fire which started in the basement of a department store at Springfield, Mo., within two hours had destroyed a building on the public square, causing damage estimated at $500,000.

If Mayor Gaynor does not discharge Commissioner Waldo, head of the New York police department, an appeal is to be made to Governor Sulzer, Waldo's enemy.

The Americans won the first game of the polo match in New York against the English team. Score 6 to 3.

A law which has just gone into effect makes murder in Washington state no longer punishable with death. Capital punishment may be reduced to life in prison. While this law takes the life of another with face life imprisonment.

Governor Hatfield of West Virginia has declined to submit to the senate anti-strike committee the records of the trials before the military commission which took charge of the strikers of the state during the trouble this spring.

Ernest Lindoff of Abingdon, Ill., is under arrest on suspicion of being implicated in the murder of his brother, Prof. Charles A. Lindoff, who was killed in his house at Oakburg, Ill. Bloodhounds placed on the trail followed the scent to a room in which Ernest Lindoff had spent the night.

Charged with sending objectionable letters to Theodore Roosevelt, John Prior of Philadelphia, was taken to the Philadelphia hospital after a hearing before United States Commissioner Craig. Physicians believe that the man is suffering from paranoia.

Judge Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation, under cross-examination in the government suit to dissolve the concern in New York, admitted that the organization could drive rivals out of business, but added that it had always opposed such action.

In a civil suit filed at Buffalo, N. Y., by order of Attorney General McKee, the government asks dissolution of the partnership of the Eastman Kodak company, which is charged with monopolizing the trade in photographic supplies in violation of the Sherman law.

More than 200 members of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, accompanied by 100 ladies, left from New York to attend the fourth annual meeting of the Verein Deutscher Ingenieure at Leipzig and to inspect the industrial and educational institutions of Germany.

Foreign

The intrenchments of the rebellious Moros under the Sultan of Jolo at Bagbag were taken after a fierce battle, in which the American casualties were six killed and 12 wounded.

The Serbian and Bulgarian governments have both agreed to accept Russian arbitration in their dispute over the territory acquired during the Balkan war.

The American steel yacht Columbia, belonging to J. Jarvey Ladow of the New York Yacht club, was seized when she put in at Waukegan, Ill., for repairs. The "arrest" of the vessel was owing to her entering a port where there is no customs house or quarantine station.

Prince Attila Georges Karageorgievitch, cousin of the king of Serbia, espoused an American bride, Mrs. Huger Pratt, near Myra Pankhurst. The civil ceremony took place at Marie Rue in Paris.

Mahmoud Shekfat Pasha, minister of war and grand vizier of Turkey, and his military aide, Ibrahim Bey, were slain in the streets of Constantinople. The grand vizier was undoubtedly slain in revenge for the murder of Nazim Pasha, war minister, and Shekfat and Ibrahim had been bitter rivals.

The home rule for Ireland bill passed its second reading in the British house of commons without dissent. The amendment moved by Mr. Dalfour for a rejection of the bill having previously been defeated, 365 to 270. Leaders of the opposition freely predicted that the impasse of this predicted that the impasse of this bill would result in a civil war.

Personal

Andrew Drew of Chicago, pupil of Orville Wright, repolished to death at Lima, Oe., in a blazing biplane. Drew took "just a little ride" - his last words to his partner - in a machine which he had not thoroughly tested.

Porter Charlton must return to Italy to answer the charge of having murdered his wife in June, 1910, at Lake Como. The United States Supreme court so decided.

Cornelius J. Jones of New Jersey, a labor leader, was nominated by President Wilson to be public printer.

Capt. John S. Brewer, at one time champion wing shot of the world, was found dead in his humble lodging in Hampton, N. J.

Vincent Astor, the twenty-one-year-old master of the millions left by his father, was elected a member of the board of directors of the Western Union Telegraph company, succeeding the late H. M. Flagler, J. P. Morgan, Jr. was also elected.

Maurice E. McLaughlin, the California Tennis star, defeated Capt. Stanley N. Dost, of the United States army, in a series of straight sets in New York, giving America the first leg of the Davis elimination series and the opportunity of meeting the German team next month in the second round.

Mrs. Arthur Keller of Harrisonville, Mo., has confessed that it was she who killed her husband and his seven-year-old daughter. She was indicted for treason. While she took the life of another with face life imprisonment.

Fearing she was going insane, Mrs. Mary Schneider, wife of a farmer near Detroit, Wis., killed her three children and herself. While the children were asleep Mrs. Schneider, with a butcher knife, cut their throats, and then turned her hands from the bodies.

HATHAWAY TELLS OF SUGAR LOBBY

DETROIT MAN SAYS HE IS PAID TO WORK FOR HIGH DUTY ON SUGAR.

TRUST OWNS THIRD OF MICHIGAN SUGAR CO.

Also Testifies That Stock Has Been Issued Against Five Million Dollars Worth of Good Will.

Calling F. R. Hathaway, of Detroit, to the witness stand, the senate subcommittee investigating committee began a systematic inquiry as to the part played by the Michigan Sugar Co. in the fight to defeat the free sugar provision of the democratic tariff bill.

From him, they gained admissions that he receives a salary of $7,500 a year and all expenses while he is in Washington working for the maintenance of a high duty on sugar; that the American Sugar Refining Co., commonly referred to as the "sugar trust," now owns between 33 and 34 percent of the Michigan Sugar Co. stock, and that stock has been issued against $5,000,000 of "good will."

Lake Crafts Under Federal Law. Owners of canoes and motor boats, operated on Round lake, Torch lake, Clear lake and Grass lake and connecting waters in Western Michigan will be forced to comply with the navigation regulations prescribed by the federal government. These waters have been declared navigable by the department of commerce as a result of an investigation ordered by Assistant Secretary of Commerce Sweet. This action will require owners of canoes to equip their vessels with lights and the owners of motor boats to provide lights, life belts, whistles and bells.

Law Students Admitted to Bar. The list of possible law practitioners in Michigan has been swelled by the addition of 133 names by the supreme court at Lansing. It means more for the standpoint of prestige to be admitted to the bar by the supreme court than to be admitted by a circuit court and so graduates of the law department at Ann Arbor, who expect to practice within the state, are making the annual trip of the class to Lansing in order to have this honor conferred upon them by the highest power within the state.

Forest Fires Are Threatening. Forest fires are burning in Cass and Alcona townships, Presque Isle county, and 25 employees of the Fletcher Paper company are fighting fire to prevent its spread to the company's lands. A number of small fires are reported from the vicinity of Long Lake, but no material damage has been done so far as can be learned.

A forest fire of considerable extent is burning in Wilson township, along the upper south branch of the Thunder Bay river. The spread of the fires is aided by very dry conditions.

Coal Barge Blown Up. Two men were killed and 22 injured when the boilers on the coal barge C. K. Peck, unloading coal at the Michigan dock, blew up at Racine, Wis. The entire deck of the steamer, a mass of debris, was thrown into the harbor and the Peck caught fire.

The boiler of the barge was blown into the air and landed 200 feet into the water, crashing into the coal company's vessels. The vessel was about to shift her position and had cast off when the accident occurred.

STATE BRIEFS.

A campaign to raise $25,000 has ended with the Kalamazoo Y. M. C. A. out of debt.

About 100 veterans of the civil war were in attendance at the annual reunion of the Eighth Michigan infantry, at Jackson.

Mrs. Louise Waught, aged 75, a pioneer of Shiawassee county, was instantly killed by a Grand Trunk passenger train. Mrs. Waught was on her way home from church and was crossing the railroad track.

For the second time within a few weeks a hunting dog, Barney, saved the life of Violet Havenman, 3 years old of Cadillac. The child was playing between the rails of the G. & E. road, back of her home, with her dolls, and did not hear the approaching train, and would have been ground to pieces had not the dog rushed to the child, grabbed her in his teeth and dragged her to the door of the Havenman home, 50 feet away.

The biggest contract ever let in Flint is the one for the construction of new sewers and the reconstruction of old ones, awarded to the city of Flint by the city council. The amount of Frange's bid was $374,200.

The thirty-ninth annual commencement exercises of Hillsdale high school were held recently. This year's class was one of the largest in the history of the school, numbering 51 pupils. Hillsdale was one of the first schools in the state to teach agriculture, and this year nine students graduated in that course.

MICHIGAN NEWS IN BRIEF

Frank S. Lyon, pastor of the Ganson Street Baptist church, Jackson District Baptist association at the convention in Bellevue.

Motormen Henry N. Marshall of Flint, and Ralph Johnson of Orion, were injured in a rear-end collision between two Detroit local cars.

The New Church of Christ, in Ann Arbor, is completed and services were held Sunday. The formal opening will occur Sunday, June 29.

Plans for Battle Creek's homecoming, August 13, the largest event of its kind ever attempted by a city of this size in Michigan, have been perfected.

George Ferguson, of Scottsdale, Pa., is the first student to enter the embalming course which is to be offered at the U. of M. this summer for the first time.

Eugene A. Welch, of Kalamazoo, was elected grand counselor of the United Commercial Travelers of Michigan, and Saginaw was chosen as the 1914 convention city.

Levi Dorn, 23, a farmer near Linwood, was taken with an epileptic fit while drawing a pail of water and fell into the well and was drowned. He lived alone on a 20-acre farm.

An effort is being made to raise $2,500 to finance the immediate opening of the Inghat county tuberculosis sanitarium. The building is completed, but money is needed to furnish the rooms.

Under the commission form of government, Battle Creek will lay nearly a mile of brick pavement this summer, and the general trend of the commission's plans has been toward economy.

Believing that the cries for help of Roy Sovey, 16, of Pontiac, were made to create excitement, the many pleasure seekers on Cass lake paid no attention to the struggling youth and he drowned.

Grand Haven is suffering from a water famine caused by a leak in the siphon which carried the water from Leggat hill to the city mains. Consumers have been asked not to use water on lawns.

The city of Saginaw has decided to pour an asphalt plant and will spend $500 for the improvement. Although the city charter prohibits the city from laying its own pavement, it is expected the charter will be amended.

A. J. Straight, 58, employed on the farm of A. B. White, south of Travers City, was killed when a team which he was driving ran away and threw him off a water tank wagon. He was thrown against a curb and the wheels passed over his chest.

H. P. Wallace Post, G. A. R., adopted a resolution calling to the attention of State Senator William A. Hosenrath the proposition that a monument be erected to mark the last resting place of the late Gov. Andrew Parsons, whose home was in this city.

Although given $50,000 for a new building by Prof. I. L. Stone, president of the Duplex Printing Press Co., the Young Women's Christian association of Battle Creek has decided to campaign for $45,000 with which to buy a site and furnish equipment for the structure.

The Upper Peninsula Dental society has awarded the 1914 convention to Escanaba for next June. Officers were elected as follows: President, Dr. H. E. Fox, Ironwood; vice-president, Dr. G. P. Ritchie, Sault Ste. Marie; secretary-treasurer, Dr. A. Cotton, Escanaba.

Mrs. F. N. Vaughn, 79, a pioneer of Shiawassee county, was instantly killed by a Grand Trunk freight train as she attempted to cross the tracks. She is survived by a husband, 81 years old, and one son. Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn recently celebrated the golden anniversary of their marriage.

The state fire marshal's office has been threatened with law suits from many parts of the state as a result of the state attempting to enforce property owners to comply with the law relative to buildings and property considered as fire nuisances. The constitutionality of the act is attacked.

Good Roads Commissioner W. M. Bryant, of Kalamazoo, has received an invitation from State Highway Commissioner Frank Rodgers to take part in the good roads tour of the state now being planned. The party will start from St. Joseph July 7, and will cover nearly the entire lower peninsula before August 1.

The state railroad commission has suspended the rate on the Michigan Central and Pere Marquette roads until July 30. The roads had planned to raise the rate for hauling coal from the mines in Bay and Saginaw counties to 10 cents a ton. The coal companies petitioned the railroad commission to prohibit the new rate until the commission could investigate.

Dr. George R. Pray has tendered his resignation as prison physician to take effect July 1 due to the illness of his practice outside of the institution. Dr. Pray has been connected with the prison at Jackson as physician for ten years.

The board of control of the Michigan college of mines and metallurgy, held its first session at the residence of Prof. C. M. Carson, dean of applied sciences and professor of chemistry at the University of New Brunswick, to be professor of chemistry at the U. of M. C. M., succeeding the late Dr. G. A. Koenig.

MOROS ARE COMPLETELY BEATEN

AMERICAN SOLDIERS DRIVE REBELLING TRIBESMEN FROM MOUNTAIN.

SIX OF ATTACKING ARMY ARE KILLED.

General Pershing Praises the Conduct of His Men—Complete Disarmament of Tribesmen is Object of Pursuit.

Complete rout of the rebellious Moros on Mount Bagbag was accomplished by the American forces with the loss of six men killed and seven wounded. Reports of the engagement, reached Manila by wireless from the island of Jolo. All of the Americans killed were members of the several companies of scouts. In the first advance upon the mountain, when the Moros were nearly dislodged from their positions, six Americans were also killed. The number of dead among the Moros is not known.

This last battle began just before dark. The fighting was fierce, but the American advance so determined that the Moros at last stole away and left the mountain clear.

Brig. Gen. John J. Pershing, commanding the department in Mindanao, is leading the forces and is enthusiastic in praise of the conduct of his men.

Complete disarmament of the semi-civilized tribes in the southern Philippines as a step toward permanent peace in the archipelago was the object of the attack on the Moros.

Government Losses Big Moros.

The government suit against the Midwest Oil Co. in test case involving the title to millions of dollars worth of oil lands in California and Wyoming—was dismissed by Judge John A. Riner, of the United States district court, at Cheyenne, Wyo., while the government sought to recover only 4,000 acres of land in this suit, the issues involved cover thousands of acres of other California and Wyoming lands.

Five Professors Are Arrested.

Warrants were issued here for the arrest of five professors and surgeons of the medical department of the university of Pennsylvania on the charge of cruelty to animals in connection with the vivisection of dogs. This constitutes the second step in a legal campaign by a local women's society. Recently Dr. J. E. Sweet, of the university was arrested on a similar charge.

Eleven Killed in New York.

Eleven men were killed and two were injured when a section of the lower, or express level, of the Lexington avenue subway, New York, caved in, with a fall of about 200 tons of granite ripped loose from the top of the excavation and smashed into splinters on the rock bottom beneath.

Woman in Forestry Service.

Equal suffrage has found its way into the federal forestry service with the appointment of Miss Hallie M. Dargatzis, of Sacramento, Cal., as forest guard in the Sixty-sixth reserve. Miss Dargatzis has been appointed to the lookout post at Eddy's Gulch.

William Holmes, former mayor of Menominee and well known all over the state, is dead at the age of 83 years.

Director Raymond Weyer, of the Muskegon art museum, will leave for Europe soon to purchase $25,000 worth of pictures.

Fire supposed to have been started by tramps in the main lumber shed of R. J. Corlett & Son, at Hillsdale, destroyed almost an entire block, causing a loss estimated at $46,000.

James Arthur Wolfing, 19 years old, was drowned in Wolf lake. Finding a B. L. Lacey, both of Jackson, were drowned when a big wave swept over into the boat and sank it.

Within 36 hours the Pere Marquette railroad lost six freight cars by fire on the side tracks. The damage is about $10,000. It is believed a firebug, who was at work for two years, is to blame.

John Turk, a workman on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, was killed while switching at MacKee Junction on the Copper Range. Turk lost his footing while walking on a car, fell between two cars of the moving train and his body was cut in two above the hips.

The cornerstone of the new St. Paul's Episcopal church, at Lansing, was laid by Bishop Wood. The ceremony being attended by visiting clergy from neighboring cities. Michigan postmasters named by the present recently were: R. D. Watson, Rochester; A. E. Stebbins, Sheridan; C. W. Carg, Bellevue; J. S. Hardy, Honor; C. C. Wheeler, Manton; J. W. O'Leary, Brooklyn; M. S. Carney, Decatur; D. E. Storms, Harrisonville; H. A. Bishop, Millington; John Lutz, Saline; W. H. Wint, Williams.

No woman is ever really happy unless she feels that some other woman envies her.

His Chance. Gateman—Hold on, there young fellow. A dollar for the car? Stud—Sold!

Be chippy on little things like bluing. Don't soap water for bluing. Ask for Red Cross Ball Blue, the extra good value blue. Ad.

Athletic. "Miss Corcoran does a great deal of fancy work." "With her needle, you mean?" "Shucks, no! On the horizontal bars."

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays the pain, cures wind colic and hiccups.

A Glass Call. A train hit a truckload of dynamite at Dallas, Ore., the other day but did not cause the stuff to explode. When the passenger train collided with the truck, the latter was carried more than 100 feet on the pilot of the engine, and the driver saved his life by jumping before the engine struck.

It Would Seem So. "What do you consider the most important even in the history of Paris?" asked the obsequious landlord of the American tourist. "Well," replied the tourist, who had grown weary of distributing tips, "so far as financial prosperity is concerned, I should say the discovery of America was the making of this town."

To Identify the Corpses.

In the blanks which life insurance companies provide their medical examiners for use in recording the data of the examination of the applicant for insurance, they provide a space for "Personal Remarks," which may be used to identify the insured after death. A western company recently received a report from an examining physician with the following in the identification blank: "He has a strong Cornish accent"—Lippincott's.

Broken Heart Caused Death.

A broken heart, caused by violent bending due to sudden emotion, was said by a doctor to be responsible for the death of Alexander Burness, sixty-four, a master tailor in London. Inquest at London. He died during an altercation with a foreman cutter as to the ownership of certain articles which he was about to remove from his former premises to new ones.

Meteorite Falls Near Womans.

A meteorite weighing 37 pounds was recently the subject of discussion in chemical circles in Johannesburg, South Africa. The stone fell in Zululand a few months ago, and was not only noticed by an eye witness but 15 miles away, but fell within a few feet of a native woman, who gave information which led to its discovery. The meteorite cannot so far be broken. It is known, however, to contain platinum.

A Relic of History.

A newly rich woman, who was anxious to make a favorable impression in her neighborhood, decided to show her collection of antiques to the bishop when he called. The time came, and one by one she displayed the whole collection, giving him the history of each piece. "There," she said, pointing impressively to an old yellow teapot, "that teapot was used in the Boston tea party."

Unique Sulfide.

A safe was used by a man named Jacob Rabinowitz, flourist here, of Philadelphia, Penn., to conceal a sulfide, a few days ago. First he jammed up an 800 pound safe with a block of wood. Placing his head beneath it he drew a strap as tightly as he could around his neck. Then he knocked the block from under the safe and the heavy weight fell upon his head. He was found by his wife but died before a physician arrived. He had been despondent for several weeks because he lost a lawsuit.

BEGAN YOUNG.

Had "Coffee Nerves" From Youth.

"When very young I began using coffee and continued up to the last six months," writes a Texas girl. "I had been exceedingly nervous, thin and very tall. After quitting coffee and drinking Postum about a month my nervousness disappeared and has never returned. This is the most remarkable as I am a primary teacher and have kept right on with my work."

"My complexion now is clear and rosy, my skin soft and smooth. As a good complexion was something I had greatly desired, I feel that I could not even though this were the only benefit derived from drinking Postum."

"Before beginning I use I had suffered greatly from indigestion and headache; these troubles are now unknown."

"I changed from coffee to Postum without the slightest inconvenience, did not even have a headache. Have known coffee drinkers, who were willing me, to use Postum a week without being aware that they were not drinking coffee."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Write for booklet, "The Road to Wellville."

Postum comes in two forms. Regular (must be boiled). Instant Postum doesn't require boiling, is prepared instantly by stirring a level teaspoonful in an open cup of water. Which makes it right for most persons.

A big cup requires more than some people who like strong things put in a heating spoonful and temper it with a large supply of cream. Experiment until you know the amount that pleases your palate and have it served that way in the future. "There's a Reason" for Postum.