

St. Agatha's Columnist Gets High Rating in National Merit Scholarship Test

By MARY LOU MANGOLD
In March of the junior year, college-bound students are required to take the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test. Recently senior Mary Lou Mangold was notified that she ranks among the 83 Detroit area National Merit Semifinalists. These students are required to take the College Entrance Examination Board's Scholastic Aptitude Test in December and submit personal information forms. Then they will be considered Finalists.

It happens every year about this time. Drivers for nationwide car-hauling services load up with Detroit's No. 1 product and take off for faraway places. And new new-car buyers throughout the country are getting their first look at the 1966 models. If a new car is part of your plans, tell your dealer you want a Detroit Bank & Trust auto loan and we'll take it from there. Rates are low. You get a quick okay. And who knows? You may be driving to faraway places yourself.

Farmington Homecoming

By MADGE HILDEBRANT
Homecoming at Farmington Senior High is the biggest event of the fall season. The Oct. 15 festivities require weeks of work in advance, organized by the Student Council and the Senior Class.

Linda Taylor, a senior, is in charge of the parade which will pass through the City of Farmington on Friday afternoon. Each class and the Student Council is making floats designed along the theme of "Social Eras."

The Homecoming queen will live on the Student Council float which, according to chairman Bob Murphy, will be based on the coronation of Elizabeth I. The three other floats will carry the members of the queen's court.

The queen and court, numbering five in all, are nominated and elected by the student body. Judy Slingerland and Bob Miller are organizing the elections during which a sophomore, a junior and three senior representatives are chosen.

Cars decorated on the same theme as the floats, will be entered in the parade, representing the various clubs at the high school.

Rivalry has developed over the years among the clubs and classes to produce the best entry in the parade. The Student Council offers a prize for the best float and car.

Sue Bliss, a senior in charge of prizes and judging, said that a tradition established at FHS last year will be repeated. A blue and white jug will be inscribed with the title of the winning float and the organization which made it.

East Detroit's Shamrocks will face the Farmington Falcons at 3:30 p.m. immediately after the parade. The program will feature the coronation of the queen, a display of the floats and cars, and a band exhibition.

A Homecoming dance, which begins at 8 p.m., will complete the day for students and alumni. Music will be provided by a rock and roll band known as the Yachties.

Bentley's Students Back Their Team

By SUE DOWELL
Congratulations student on Friday, Oct. 1, Bentley High school true and noble. The spirit of the students shown as eight busloads traveled to the football game. The buses took them to the game against Allen Park.

The American Field Service has begun its work. Applicants for the Americans Abroad under the American Field Service plan, were present at an assembly on Sept. 29 to learn about visiting another country.

A pupil who wishes to visit another country must be willing to live with a chosen family from any one of the 45 countries active in American Field Service.

He or she must be in perfect physical health. It is important that the person who goes abroad is very adaptable to very different living conditions. A good personality, as well as grades is what the judges look for. No student with averages lower than C is eligible to be a prospective traveler.

Oct. 8 all applications for the A.F.S. must be turned in. At this time students will be given a preliminary screening. The applicants will have an informal get together on October 9. The final screenings of the American Field Service will take place on October 12 and 13 from 1 p.m. until 4 p.m.

The DRC Story

COURAGE SITS TALL IN A SADDLE, WITH RACING'S LITTLE MEN.

"All Right... Riders Up!"

Nine times each day, Bill Kelly barks the command in the Paddock at the Detroit Race Course. Jockeys in gay-colored silks quickly mount and take their thoroughbreds on to the track for another race.

It is an unending drama. I have watched it for more than 30 years. I never grow tired of it, for it involves fascinating and courageous Little Men.

Little Men... they weigh between 100 and 110 pounds... and must handle, with ballet-like precision and skill, high spirited thoroughbreds whose weight is 10 times that of their own.

The Jockey Colony at the Detroit Race Course always is an interesting one. We get a mixture of brilliant young apprentices on their way up, talented performers who have managed to establish themselves in a few seasons, and true riding veterans.

Few sports fans... even those who attend the races with some regularity... realize the amazing role jockeys play in their relation to stars in other sports.

Larry Snyder, a youngster who recently turned in one of the great riding feats in DRC history, when he had five winners in a day, doesn't get the recognition Detroit sports fans bestow on stars like Al Kaline of the Tigers, Joe Schmidt of the Lions, or Gordie Howe of the Red Wings. Yet, Snyder's earnings will match or exceed those of his illustrious counterparts. In the first eight months of 1965, Larry's mounts won $622,506 and jockeys normally get 10 per cent of the purse they win.

Ronnie Campbell, who came off his father's farm at Fremont, Michigan, six years ago to begin a brilliant riding career, recently scored his 1,000th victory.

Campbell made an interesting observation at the time. He said: "Few people realize how rugged and strenuous it is to ride a race horse. You could take the finest conditioned miler off a top college track team or an outstanding college professional football player, put him on a horse and let him ride in a race—and he wouldn't be able to catch his breath for the next hour!"

Among our riders this season are two veterans who rank among the all-time national leaders in total victories. Howard Craig went into this season with 2,695 victories in his 17-year career and Robert L. Baird had 2,543 wins for his 19 seasons. There are only ten riders in U.S. turf history who have ever won more races.

The colorful Little Men are among the many reasons you will find a visit to the Detroit Race Course interesting and filled with pleasure.

We have a new Clubhouse which is one of the Showplaces of the Sports World. There are superb restaurants in our dining rooms, "The Winner's Circle," and "The Mile Terrace"; an interesting old world tavern in "Ye Tired Old Horse Pub"; a gay French Quarter Lounge, and a superb collection of thoroughbred racing art in our "Corridor of The Stars."

The Little Men join me in inviting YOU to visit the DRC soon. We race daily through November 6.
