MR. AND MRS. JAMES LAMAY

Linda Straker Weds Leo James La May

Linda Gaye Straker and Leo James LaMay were married Aug. 7 at a double ring ceremony at St. Michael's Roman Catholic Church in Livonia. The Rev. Fr. Robert N. Burkholder performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Linda Straker of Detroit is the mother of the bride, while Mr. and Mrs. Lionel LaMay of Livonia are the bridegroom's parents.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Paul Parker, the bride wore a gown of silk organza over tulle with chapel point sleeves. She carried white stephanandis and five white or children.

Mrs. Onaltee Bates of Plymouth was the matron of honor. Joyce Abrecht, Pam Parker, Pat Nelson, Sheryl Weisswasser and Marylou Shivers served as bridesmaids. They wore green and beige empire dresses and carried green topped carnations.

James Vilecaro of Coraopolis, Pa. was the best man. Seating the guests were: Norm Lorrimer, Gary Bates, Art Nelson, Lionel LaMay and Tom Straker.

The bride is a graduate of Henry Ford High School and attended Eastern Michigan University. Her husband, a graduate of Catholic Central High School and the Carnegie Institute of Technology, is currently doing graduate study in physics at Michigan State University.

The newlyweds will reside in Spartan Village on the MSU campus.

Marsha Van Dyke-Jerry Haller Repeat Vows

Marsha Gale VanDyke and Jerry J. Haller exchanged wedding vows Sept. 11 at a candle-light service in Redford Presbyterian Church. Rev. Donald Wilmoth officiated.

Donald Silver sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride's floor length gown of peau de soie was trimmed with Alencon lace, and she carried white roses and lily.

Lynn VanDyke was maid of honor in a gold silk chiffon over tulle with a bodice of Viennese lace. Her bouquet was of lily buds with natural wheat.

Marlyn Everson and Joyce McMahon served as bridesmaids. Identically groomed as the maid of honor.

Thomas Santoro was best man and seating the guests were Donald Schmid and James Dahn.

Following the ceremony there was a reception for 110 guests at Botsford Inn. Out of town guests came from New York, Ontario, Cincinnati, Saginaw and Monroe.

The newlyweds enjoyed a trip to the Black Hills and South Dakota.

MRS. JERRY J. HALLER

Both are students at Michigan State, the bride in elementary education and the groom is a senior in electrical engineering.
