CHRISTMAS WALK Circle your calendar for Dec. 16 and plan a real fun day for yourself, your husband, and friends. Plymouth National Farm and Garden will be staging another of its Christmas ventures. Charities of the event are Mrs. Donald Ward and Mrs. A. E. Van Ornum. Tickets are already on sale and may be purchased from any Garden Club member or ticket chairman. Mrs. Lawrence Beckley, Call and reserve yours at 455-5183.

The tour will include seven homes and a visit to the Mayflower Hotel where one can lunch and purchase Christmas items.

GLANCING AROUND the football stadium, the new lights made it possible to see some of Plymouth's '65 grads who were here to attend homecoming.

From Michigan State, were Linda Hill, Kaye Perish, Dave Fern and roommates Rick Lockwood and Rob Wilson.

From Michigan were Linda Baughman, Pat Barry, Pat Skaner and Sue Ward.

From Western came Bill Johnson, Jill Von Hoffe, Gary Fuelling and Tom Todd; and over in one corner Janice Nagy and Ducky Lyon were spotted.

MRS. E. M. STEWART of Jener Street was delighted to have her son Irving and family visit her over the weekend. Coming from Cincinnati to visit their grandmother Stewart Kimberly and Karen, along with their parents, have now left for Los Angeles to visit their grandparents.

THE ARTHUR BROCKLEHURSTS of Placerville, Calif. were visitors at the home of the A. K. Brocklehursts, of Wing Street. The group along with the Alfred Coners spent some time up north viewing and capturing the fall colors.

PLYMOUTH CHAPTER OF TOPS is staging a toy demonstration on Wednesday, Oct. 20 from 7:30 to 9:30 in Room 115 at the Plymouth High School. The public is invited.

PEA Prexy To Speak At Legion

James Doyle, president of the Plymouth Education Association and member of the counseling and guidance staff at Plymouth High School, will be the principal speaker at the "Why Are We" program and dinner Saturday, Oct. 23 in the American Legion Hall on Sheldon Road.

The programs are sponsored monthly by Passage-Gayde Post of the American Legion and Auxiliary Unit.

Speaking on behalf of the Legion will be Donald J. Smith, past State Commander and currently superintendent of schools at Powellville.

Other guests at the affair will be members of the Plymouth Community School District Board of Education and the administrative staff.

Passage-Gayde Post Commander Robert Hower and Auxiliary President Mrs. Mae Hoelscher invite all Plymouth residents interested to attend the speaking program which will begin shortly after 7:30 p.m.

Doyle, who holds a Bachelor's degree from Central Michigan and a Master's degree from Wayne State, is well known as a football official and as a former basketball coach at Plymouth High. He is an educational specialist on the staff.

He is a division chairman for the Community Fund Drive, member of Our Lady of Good Counsel Church and is well known in the area as an after dinner speaker.

Smith, of St. Johns, has served the Legion as State Commander as Michigan's National Executive Committee member for a two year term. He was also Post Commander at St. John's and a committeeman for the Eighth District.

Prior to service in World War II, Smith taught in elementary schools for 10 years. He is a graduate of Central Michigan University and the American Legion College. He is a member of the 40 and 8.

Guests at the November meeting will be members of the Goodfellow's organization and the Plymouth Firemen's Association.

50 Area Leaders Attend Vivian Session at Capitol

Almost 50 local officials and business leaders met at the United States Representative Westcott E. Vivian's invitation to attend his Second District Community Development Conference in Washington on Oct. 18 and 19.

This includes seven Mayors, eight Township Supervisors and Trustees, and almost a dozen City Councilmen and Commissioners, plus a number of other City, County and Township officials and employees.

Congressman Vivian arranged a program for a number of wives who are accompanying their husbands to Washington. On Monday afternoon, the ladies had tea with Mrs. Esther Peterson, Special Assistant to the President for Consumer Affairs, at Mrs. Peterson's Executive Office Building Suite.

The Conference began on Monday, with a special briefing for Monroe County officials, on the provisions of the new Economic Development Act, programs under which are available only to Monroe County.

At noon on Monday, Ambassador Douglas MacArthur, Assistant Secretary of State, briefed the conferees and their wives, on international affairs.

In the afternoon, the conferees met with representatives of the Housing and Home Finance Administration, the Bureau of Public Roads, and the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation, U.S. Department of the Interior.

Tuesday morning, while the ladies were being conducted on a special V.I.P. tour of the White House, the conferees presented officials of the Office of Economic Opportunity and the Department of Agriculture, discussing ways in which local government can participate in Federal programs under their respective jurisdiction.

The Secretary of Agriculture, the Honorable Orville L. Freeman, introduced his Department's programs.

At lunch on Tuesday the conferees heard the Honorable W. Willard Wirtz, Secretary of Labor, discuss the developing federal-local relationship, and what implications this development can have for local officials and businessmen.

Tuesday afternoon, the conferees heard representatives of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, including the Honorable Wilbur J. Cohen, of Ann Arbor the Undersecretary, discuss programs in hospital construction, nursing home assistance, water and air pollution control and water treatment facilities construction assistance.

They also heard a presentation on the role of the Small Business Administration, by

EDISON

We can keep you in hot water.

In fact, we guarantee it!

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED

DETROIT EDISON

An electric water heater is for the people who don't like to run out of hot water. We're so sure you'll like one, we guarantee your satisfaction — for a whole year! What do we mean by satisfaction? Simply this: If you don't get all the hot water you want, when you want it, we get all your money back, including any you may have spent on installation. And it doesn't matter who bought your electric water heater. The Edison guarantee still applies. No strings attached. Fair enough?

Average-size families with electric water heaters pay as little as $3.88 a month — a standard rate — for hot water. How much are you paying?
