

Babysitters Course Begins

The Farmington Jaycee Auxiliary will conduct the first Babysitting Clinic, "Parents By the Hour," this year. The first session begins tonight, Wednesday, and runs for five consecutive weeks beginning at 7:30 p.m.

All sessions will be held in the cafeteria at the O. E. Dunckel Junior High School on 12 Mile Rd.

Purpose of the course is to assist baby sitters. Topics for the course are: first aid, child care, safety, resuscitation, and a demonstration on how to amuse and entertain young children.

A written examination covering the material will be given and cards will be presented to those who earn them.

MR. AND MRS. STANLEY L. NYLUND

Joan Wadsworth Married Sept. 4

Joan E. Wadsworth married Stanley L. Nylund Sept. 4 at the Kingdom Hall of the Jehovah's Witnesses. Donald Wadsworth, uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. John Wadsworth of Livonia, while the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Anderson of Hibbing, Minnesota.

Given in marriage by her brother, John Wadsworth, the bride wore a floor length sheath gown with re-embroidered alienon lace on the bodice and a chapel train. She carried a cascade bouquet of eucharis lilies, stephanotis and ivy.

Karen Blahovec was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs.

Lillian Greka and Sandra Exell. They wore full length sheath gowns of gold brocade and crepe. Their flowers were cascade bouquets of full mums.

Robert Balch served as the best man, while Gary Johnson, Fredrick Herdick and Joseph Greka seated the guests.

A reception was held at the Kenwood Restaurant with 173 guests in attendance. Out of town guests came from Florida, Texas, Minnesota and Illinois.

Following a honeymoon in Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, the newlyweds will reside in Warren.

The bride is a graduate of Bentley High School. Her husband graduated from the University of Minnesota.

Glams Note 25 Years of Marriage, 23 In Garden City

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Glamb celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary last week with members of their family. The couple was married at the St. Rose of Lima Church in New York, Oct. 10, 1940 and have lived in Garden City on Sheridan Street since 1952. Their two sons, Victor and Robert, are in college and their two daughters, Virginia and Barbara, are in high school.

The Glamb's remember Garden City when it was more vacant land and farms with just a few buildings. Their anniversary was occasion to reminisce about the rapid growth of the community they have chosen for their home.
