

Beyer Drugs Lists Prizes For Contest

The annual Rexall boys and girls contest, for youngsters 10 and under, is underway at the Beyer Drug store chain in Plymouth according to Owner Robert Beyer.

The contest offers two grand prizes a Columbia Fire-bolt bicycle for a boy and a girl with built-in chrome twin head-lamps, electric horns, chrome rims and fenders and white-wall tires.

If you are 16 or under, get the contest rules by stopping in at one of the three Beyer stores—N. Main, Forest Ave. and Ann Arbor Road—and a nomination blank. Have your mother or father fill it out and take it back to one of the three stores and you're officially entered.

It isn't necessary to buy anything to enter.

Watch for the special "bonus points" on selected items in the store. The manager will offer "bonus points" each week on certain items to help contestants build up points.

Bulletins will be posted regularly in all three stores to show the standings of all contestants.

Other prizes include: an American Flyer train set, music hall chord organ, electric guitar, transistor phonograph, easy bake oven, English doll coach, scooby-doo doll, junior pool table, Boeing pursuit plane and a Mattel toy power shop.

Be sure and drop in now to secure a nomination blank and then take it home for the signatures of your parents.

Pistons Seek Ways To Stop Celtic Drive

Can the Boston Celtics do it again? That's the burning question around the National Basketball Association as the 1965-66 season enters its second week.

The Celtics have made professional sports history by winning the world series of professional basketball for the last seven years a row and the NBA's Eastern Division Title the past nine years.

Experts are conceding that there'll be no stopping the Celts again this winter, although they expect Coach Red Auerbach's forces may find it more difficult keeping alive their fantastic string of successes.

But the Celtics still have Bill Russell and Detroit area fans will get their first chance of the new campaign to see the brilliant Russell when he leads the Celtics against the Pistons at Cobo Arena this Friday night at 8 p.m.

Russell is the man around whom the Celtics revolve. He's the great big center player in the history of the game and the NBA's premier rebounder.

Back with Russell are the famed Jones boys, Sam and K.C., who make up a sensation- al duo at the guards; Tom Sand- ers, an unsung hero at the for- ward; and John Havlicek, the former Ohio State All-Big Ten great who can shift be- tween forward and guard and pivot in the opposition.
