

AT THURSTON

Class Takes A Tour

By Lynn Barnett
Mr. Joann's Common Learning class took a tour of downtown Detroit and surrounding areas October 22. They went through Royal Oak, Farmington, Oak Park, Palmer Park, and downtown Detroit. The students visited Purling High School and the Wayne State University campus. The purpose was to show the different characteristics of the cities in the Detroit area. Interviewing for the American Field Service Overseas Program took place Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 27 and 28. The semi-finals were: Jan Claus, Sue Fritz, Judy Horton, Kathy Meinchein, Larry Uley, Sue Webb, Sharon Wieland, and Virginia Yarity. After a second interview, Thursday night, two semi-finalists were determined. They are: Jan Claus and Larry Uley. Their records will go to New York where the final decision will be made. Practical Theater, Speech and Drama students attended "Krupp's Last Tape," a one-man play at the Mendelssohn Theatre in Ann Arbor. The play started at 4 and ended two hours later. Moore sponsored the group. Student Exchange Day with Oak Park High took place October 27. The student council took the students to Oak Park on a tour of the city and then they sat in on some of the classes.

Auxiliary Police Class Scheduled

The Livonia Office of Civil Defense will begin a basic training course for Auxiliary Police. The starting date of these classes will be announced soon. This training is under the direction of the Auxiliary Police and the Livonia Police Department. Also, a Mounted Division is being formed and any male, who is over 21 years of age, interested in this training and serving the City of Livonia in this capacity, should call the Office of Civil Defense, 421-2000, ext. 227, for further information. After 5 p.m. calls will be taken at GA. 5280.

THE DROP OF A HAT

When the kids get really revved up, you naturally want pictures of the pandemonium they create. And that calls for movies—and a movie camera that's ready for any occasion. Here's your best bet. The new KODAK INSTAMATIC M4 Movie Camera. It loads instantly. You just drop in a KODAPAK Movie Cartridge, close the camera, and shoot. That's all there is to it. Shoot a full fifty feet if you want—no stop. There's no mid-point flipping of the film. No missed scenes while you wind. Batteries drive your film, roll after roll. The electric eye sets exposures. All you do is concentrate on making movies. And I must say, they're great movies. KODAPAK Movie Cartridges are factory-loaded with new improved KODACHROME II Film, Type A. The new Super 8 format gives you images on the film that are 50% bigger than with regular 8mm film. And, of course, that means sharper, brighter, more colorful movies on your screen. Naturally, there are lots more reasons why you should treat yourself to the easiest and most reliable movie-maker I've ever seen. Naturally, there are lots more reasons why you should treat yourself to the easiest and most reliable movie-maker I've ever seen. The KODAK INSTAMATIC M4 Movie Camera has an extra-fast f/1.8 lens, CDS electric-eye exposure control, automatic film speed settings, and a sound recording system. You can use a KODAK INSTAMATIC Movie Light. And, of course, the price this is another mighty good reason for owning an "M4." It's only $19.95. So hurry in, soon and get it. Once you handle it and load it, I bet you'll buy it... at the drop of a hat.

ST. AGATHA HIGH ACCENTS

Five Seniors in Forensic Contest

By Mary Lou Mangold
Five St. Agatha students participated in the Michigan Forensic Association discussion at the Detroit Institute of Technology.

Representing St. Agatha's were seniors Janet Parent, Katherine Francis, and Lynda Wilkerson. Junior Edwina Gills and sophomore Robert Wilkerson.

Accompanying the group were Forensic Club moderator Sister Helen Charles, O.P. and members Patricia Clinton, Nancy Urban, Jessie Garden, David and Thursday, Oct. 27 and 28. The semi-finals were: Jan Claus, Sue Fritz, Judy Horton, Kathy Meinchein, Larry Uley, Sue Webb, Sharon Wieland, and Virginia Yarity.

The previous day, participants presented a panel to the economics class. The subject of the topic was: "What should be the policy of the federal government toward strikes in the basic industries?"

Mercy College Director of Admissions spoke to college-bound juniors and seniors on Oct. 20. Among the topics discussed were curriculum at Mercy, admission requirements, how to obtain scholarship aid, and the College Board Examinations.

Juniors are approaching their religion course from a unique angle this year. Instead of following the text book, they are studying the same topic — racial crisis all year. One of their methods of obtaining information is through guest speakers.

On Oct. 29, three sisters from the Dominican Sisters of the Sick Poor addressed the juniors. Sister Mary Joan, Sister Marian, and Sister Marilyn were the guests of the Junior

At Ladywood High

Happy Day For Pupils

By Margo Murphy
Ladywood faculty and girls were happy to receive Nov. 1 off from school along with all the other Catholic schools throughout the nation. The reason for this is the feast of "All Saints" which is a holy day of obligation for all Catholics.

On Oct. 29 the juniors sponsored a "Tallowen Hop." Entertainment was provided for by the "Chessmates," a local band. The end of the first quarter of school will come to a close Friday, Nov. 5. With the conclusion of each quarter comes tests which will be given tomorrow and Friday.

The first C.S.M.C. meeting was held on Nov. 4. The prime purpose was to acquaint new girls with the goal and activities of the organization.

Three girls accepted an invitation to attend a Mass of Celebration at the Blessed Sacrament Cathedral Saturday, Nov. 6. This is a Mass which 12 priests say simultaneously on 12 different altars in the same church.

At Selfridge Field Base

Army Privates Jerome P. Marsh, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. Covell Marsh of 3903 Schoolcraft, Livonia, has been assigned as an Air Defense Fire Distribution Systems Crewman for Headquarters and Headquarters Battery, 28th Artillery

Group (Air Defense), located at Selfridge AFB. Private Marsh, a 1963 graduate of Bentley High School, Livonia, entered the Army in August of 1965 and completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky.

The yearbook ad drive, previously carried on by the seniors, is now open to the whole school. All underclassmen who sell four dollars worth of ads by Nov. 15 will be treated to a movie, and those who bring in $10 will receive a free yearbook.

Sister Paul Christine, O.P. and three of her economics students, Eileen Rosemaris, Darlene Miron, and Christopher Berger, attended a lecture by social critic Vance Packard at Marygrove College.

The 1965 Torch Drive ended on Oct. 27. Freshman (room 33), won Torchy, with 127 per cent; seniors (room 42) were second with 115 per cent; and sophomores (room 35), who reached 93 per cent were third. The drive netted a total of $47.94.
