Plymouth Chapter Of MCC Have Bake Sale

Plymouth Chapter of Michigan Christian College Associates will be conducting their annual rummage and bake sale at the Federal Credit Union building in Plymouth this Friday and Saturday, Nov. 5th and 6th. This year it will be a two day affair, starting at 11 a.m. Friday and closing at 5 p.m. Saturday the hours will be from 9 a.m. until 8 p.m.

The rummage and bake sale, consisting of Mrs. James Ward of 9485 Marlowe, Mrs. W. B. Newbill of 723 Maple and Mrs. William J. of 1008 Starkweather, have carefully planned the event and are enthusiastic about the two day affair. Highlights of the sale include a good quality of clothing, freshly home baked goods, delicious Georgia pre-fried fruit cakes, and a "coffee break" table ready to serve coffee and pie throughout both days.

The Plymouth chapter of MCC Associates consists of 28 members and each year they raise approximately $1,000 for the benefit of the college. Plymouth, among other Michigan and Ohio state chapters, will be participating in a Yule bazaar November 13th in the college cafeteria at 600 Avon Rd. in Rochester. This is again designed for holiday buying and a day of family fun.

The regular monthly meeting of the Plymouth chapter Ladies Associates will be conducted in the home of Mrs. Arnold Pylas on Nov. 8th at 7:30 p.m.

'Friends of Library' Answer Questions About Livonia's New Library

Are you interested in Livonia's newest Library? Would you like to know why it hasn't started on the South Branch? Would you like to see the latest new books? Would you like to browse through the library at your leisure?

This "Invitation to Book-Lovers" is extended to you by the Friends of the Livonia Public Library. On Nov. 9 at 9 p.m. an Open-House will be held at the Carl Sandburg Branch on Seven Mile Road.

New books will be on display for inspection. "Skip" Rosenthal, Livonia's librarian, will talk on the new South Branch building.
