

Holiday Call to Overseas Servicemen Offered by Telephone Union in Area

"Hi, Mom!"

At least 10 families in The Observer Newspapers' circulation area will be hearing these words spoken by their sons or daughters stationed overseas with United States Armed Forces during the holiday season.

From Vietnam to West Germany, and in all parts of the world, servicemen will have the chance to talk with their loved ones here.

In cooperation with USO, Local 4015 of the Communications Workers of America (AFL-CIO) is sponsoring free overseas telephone calls in the union's ninth annual "Hi Mom" program. Local 4015 includes members in the communications industry who live in Livonia, Redford Township, Farmington, Plymouth, Nankin Township and Garden City.

Gerald Greer, the president of Local 4015, said anyone with a son or daughter stationed overseas is eligible to receive one of the free calls.

To be eligible, the person wanting to call overseas should write in 25 words or less his or her reasons for wanting to make the call.

Farmington 'Boulevard' Gets Nod

The plan to make Farmington Rd. a boulevard through Livonia has met with "initial favorable reaction" by the Wayne County Road Commission.

That's the report of city officials who met with Commission members last week to discuss the idea of a four-lane separated highway.

Mayer Harvey Moelke, who attended the meeting with Councilmen Ed McNamara, John Dooley, Edward Milligan, Peter Ventura and Charles Pinto, said the Road Commission emphasized that if the boulevard idea caused any additional cost over the straight, undivided four-lane route, the city would have to bear it.
