Madonna Students Host Critic Teachers

Ring Day ceremonies, a co-operating teachers dinner, and Thanksgiving dinner are the three events that marked November 22 as a red-letter day at Madonna College.

Seniors were presented with their class rings on this occasion.

Teachers from schools that have cooperated with Madonna College by providing centers and critic teachers for the eight-week directed teaching program of student teachers were honored at the dinner. Schools represented were Grant Elementary, McKinley, Cooper, Roseville, Coolidge, Lincoln, Emerson, Junior High, Bryant, Fresh, Bentley High School, Thurston, St. Michael, St. Mel, St. Stanislaus, Our Lady of Refuge, Monroe, and Ashcroft.

Specially honored for their services to Madonna College were Mrs. Nancy Tanager of Plymouth, and Louis Schmidt, Superintendent of Public Instruction in Clarensville.

An "explosion" of the day was Gerry Coraci, Madonna junior. Second chairman of the affair, told the co-operating teachers was Bernardine Olesiak, Joan deVerteul spoke at the program and distributed the honors.

For the past five years the student teachers at Madonna College have held a special dinner to "thank" their critic teachers and representatives of the schools in which they are allowed to do their directed teaching of some 300 hours.

This year the Thanksgiving dinner had been planned as a tribute and a mark of gratitude to the many people responsible for the preparation of new teachers for our districts.

Interest High In Plymouth JC Bowling League

The Plymouth Jaycees, who took over sponsorship of the Junior Bowling League at the Plymouth Bowl, report interest is higher than ever at the end of six weeks.

The league, which includes 18 teams, bowls on Saturdays from 10 a.m. to noon. Trophies and awards will be presented at the banquet for league winners slated at the end of the season.

Awards will be made for the high team score, high single and high individual series, highest average and to the league champions.

M. Gross has the high individual series (two games) with a total of 301 with S. Overmyer with the high individual game of 175. M. Gross and M. Viskochil lead in the over-average count with 115 pins.

Program Taking Shape for New Building Dedication

Dedication ceremonies for Redford Township's new water department building at 12200 Beech-Daily Rd. will be held Saturday, Dec. 4.

A flag raising ceremony under direction of American Legion Post Commander, Gerald Earl Delaney, will begin at 4 p.m. to start the ceremonies, which will be followed by an open house and tours of the new facilities.

Justice of the Peace James L. Ryan will be master of ceremonies at the dedication and a 12-page pamphlet outlining recent community improvements will be distributed.

Notre Dame and Michigan State are old football rivals, meeting for the first time in 1897.
