

Set Oratorio

Soloists have been selected for Oakland University Chorus presentation of Bach's "Christmas Oratorio," according to George V. Cripps, director of the Chorus.

Mrs. Irene Kunst Edinger will sing soprano with the 180-voice chorus, which will be accompanied by an orchestra, of faculty, students and musicians from the community. Alto soloist will be Alice Eagan, of the OU music faculty; tenor Dan Presley, of the Hillsdale College music faculty; and bass Otto Brown, director of vocal music in Ferndale High School.

The Oratorio will be presented Dec. 12 at 3:30 p.m. in the OU Sports and Recreation Building.

YMCA Opens New Classes At Redford High Dec. 11

YMCA gym and swim classes will begin a new series Dec. 11 at the Redford High School on Grand River Ave. in Detroit.

The classes will run for eight weeks with the emphasis on physical fitness development.

The gym classes include games and sports which are not highly competitive but provide boys and girls an opportunity to learn new skills.

Based on the National YMCA Progressive Swim Program, each of the swim classes will be under the direction of a qualified YMCA instructor. Each class will meet in a small group according to swimming ability.

The combination gym and swim class is two hours on Saturday morning. Specific class times may be obtained by calling the Farmington area YMCA at 474-3232.

Classes are for boys and girls between the ages of 6 and 12 and a pre-registration is required.

About one-fourth of Kalamazoo College students take part in a variety of College-arranged off-campus programs throughout the year.

Sears Has Something for All on Your List

With the Christmas shopping season upon us and the big day not so far away, it might be well to realize that Sears Livonia Mall store has everything — something for everyone on your list, even those friends who "have everything."

And the big thing to remember is that one can do all of his Yule shopping at Sears with no money down by taking advantage of one of the convenient credit plans offered by Sears.

Looking for something handy for the wife? Then think of the Sears electric knives that have become so popular since introduced just months ago. Then if it is something more expensive for the little lady, the gift supreme is a Mink bubble cape which Sears is stressing at this time of the year. It is superbly shaped with a bloused back, bolster collar and curving side vents in three colors — Dawn, Ranch and Pastel.

Have a teenager in the family? Then take a look at the luxurious gift robes that are being offered and the colorful slippers — the hostess, the leisure-casual, the sophisticated scuffs or those fabulous at-home boots.

And Mom, if you're thinking of something for Pop — Sears has portable electric tools that every handyman around the house should have.

What better gift to give the man of the house than an electric shaver or if he likes outdoor sports, what husband would think of looking down his nose at a new fishing rod and reel.

Sears carries the entire line made popular by Ted Williams, the great slugging outfielder of the Boston Red Sox, who had just as much interest in fishing as he did in getting base hits prior to his retirement from baseball.

Now lanky Ted devotes all of his time to fishing and developing new rods and reels for Sears. The sporting goods department has a complete line of the Williams models — Dad would like to have one of them, too.

Looking for something for all members of the family? What better gift to all than one of the many pool tables Sears is offering this year. They range in all prices and are guaranteed to make every member of the family a pool playing "bug" in quick order.

Perhaps the youngsters, or maybe Mother and Dad, are in the rapidly growing group of archery enthusiasts. Sears has the answer for that with an unusual display of all types of bows and arrows.

And there is a complete selection of golf clubs and accessories as well as a full line of tennis rackets.

There are sweaters for all members of the family. The finest luggage, footballs, basketballs and baseball equipment. Just name it and Sears has it. And in case you are having trouble picking a gift for a friend, there is the gift court on the second floor. Exotic, unusual items are available for you to browse around and to pick out something for even the most finicky friends.

Try — Sears for any Christmas gift; you're looking for — you can be sure you'll find it.

The Livonia Mall store will be open every night until 9 from now until the day before Christmas.
