

BULLETINS FROM BENTLEY:

Thanksgiving Visits Bentley

By SUE DOWELL
Thanksgiving came to Bentley in a special way. Two performances in one morning saw the Bentley choir perform to bring in the Christmas and Turkey season. The assembly was given during school for all of Bentley's students. Two performances in one morning saw the Bentley choir perform to bring in the Christmas and Turkey season. North Farmington's all-school play, "The Thunder Carnival," was presented in the gym Nov. 19 and 20. Concluding of short, satirical sketches. The play, under the direction of Miss June Sulewsky, was a delight to all.
Special recognition is due to the twelve stars who worked hard but effectively to create thirty different characters. They were: Alan Barak, Fred Backlund, Bob Golek, Randy Frank, Casey Golek, Linda Mann, Tammy Raleigh, Mike Carlson, Sue Snyder, and Neil Slesman.
NF students attended a Thanksgiving Assembly presented by the music department on Nov. 24. James Hunt, Lawrence Haver, and the students who participated are to be commended for a fine holiday program.

FHS Pupils See 'Tempest'

by Madge Hildebrandt
English students at Farmington Senior High will see "The Tempest" on a Saturday in early spring. The play is open to the public and is a money-making project designed to increase the Senior Prom and the senior gift.
John McGroarty, who is in charge of the entire project, said, "We are confident that the carnival this year will be just as successful, if not more so, than in past years. We are attempting to get an early start so that there will not be last minute adjustments to make."
