

Redford Parents Group to Hear Report on Plymouth State Home

The Redford Association for Retarded Children will meet on Dec. 14 at 8 p.m. in the Beech Road School at 18428 Beech Road. The speaker for the evening will be Mr. William Boyd from the Plymouth State Home who will also show slides. The meeting will be followed by a social hour when refreshments will be served. Public is invited and welcome to attend RARC meetings which are held on the second Tuesday of the month during school year except in January.

The Card Party was a success and enjoyed by all, reports June Summers, who planned and organized the event.

Plans for the 1966 Annual Dance are already underway and tickets will be available at the December meeting. Dance chairman Wanda Hudson announced that the dance would be held on April 22, 1966 at Roma Hall. For further information and tickets call Wanda at KE 3-5773.

The "Just Fun" Club will have its next social evening on Dec. 3 at 7:30 p.m. (The arrangements for the evening are not finalized; for information call KE 3-5936. The Club is for teens and early twenties young adults to establish social activities and contacts.

The RARC voted in response to a request letter, to donate $50 to the parents group of the Mt. Pleasant State Home for draperies for the home.

For information on the RARC or its activities, call KE 1-6842.

Open Essay Contest for Township Pupils

Frank Herndon, president of the Redford Township Junior Chamber of Commerce, announced today an essay contest for public and parochial students in the seventh and eighth grades, which is titled "What My Country Means to Me." The subject for this year's essay contest. Essays are to be submitted to the Jaycees by January 7, and can be from 300 to 1500 words in length. "Me" is to be original, but assistance can be given by teachers and parents. Schools must submit 25 essays before it can be judged in local competition.

Kalamazoo College's new $1.8 million Upsilon Library will be open in 1967.

Stewart Schauder has been named chairman of the essay contest. In accepting the chairmanship, Schauder said the entry blanks will be distributed this week to all seventh and eighth grade public and parochial school teachers, along with an explanation of the contest.

MORE THAN $500 worth of new toys now on display at Santa's Toy Workshop in Wonderland Center will be donated to needy children, according to Ernie Epps, promotion director for the center at Plymouth Road and Middle-bell. The Doll Shop, typical of four toyland displays, is inspected by Nate Trivax (left), of Federal Department Stores and John Micheliwicz of the National Bank of Livonia.

Redford Township Student Joins Wassailing Singers

Janice Krupansky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen R. Krupansky, of 28446 West Chicago, Redford Township, is one of the members of the University of Detroit chorus who will perform as a Madrigal Singer at the Madrigal Dinners in the U. of D. Student Union Ballroom December 4, 5, 11 and 12.

A sophomore majoring in history, Miss Krupansky is a 1964 graduate of Holy Redeemer High School.

The Madrigal Dinners will follow the theme "Return to Merry Old England" and serve a traditional Yuletide meal of wassail cup, roast sirloin of beef and plum pudding. The Madrigal Singers will entertain before, during and after the meal in authentic costumes of the period.

Goodfellows' Goal: $5,000

Redford Township Goodfellows have set a goal of $5,000 in contributions in this year's drive to insure a happy Christmas to all Township youngsters.

A special paper sale will be held on Saturday, Dec. 18, to raise funds and "old newspapers" will offer special editions of THE OBSERVER on street corners throughout the community.

Advance contributions may be sent now to the Redford Township Hall, 15145 Beech-Daly, Detroit 48239.

Checks should be made out to: "Redford Township Goodfellow Association."

Township DAV Marks 10th Birthday

Redford Township's largest veterans' organization celebrated its 10th anniversary recently with a celebration attended by a capacity crowd of 235 persons.

Chapter 113 of the Disabled American Veterans reviewed the past 10 years in speeches by officers at the chapter's Memorial Home, 25544 Five Mile near Beech Daly, which recently retired its mortgage through members' financial efforts.

Among the members honored was former Redford Township Treasurer John Bennett, now State Representative for the 34th District. He was praised for his efforts on behalf of veterans and widows in assisting them complete their homestead exemption forms while Treasurer, and for his current efforts in Lansing to retain this benefit.

Bennett, in turn, presented Chapter 113 a framed copy of House Resolution 216, a resolution of tribute citing Chapter 113 "for a decade of achieve-
