Clarenceville Picture Is Brighter This Season

The basketball picture is: 5.11; Fred Nell. 5-8; Tom looking up at Clarenceville high achool.

That's the word of cosch Bob McKillop, who has ix veterans back from last year, plus a fine crop from his junior variety.

"We're much improved," says McKillop, "and we'll have more balance.

Observing Sports (Continued from Page 2-B) Labor Day, why not extend the season another week or two?

"Time was in Michigan that many teams played as late as Thanksgiving, Now only one game involving high school cams is played on Turkey Day. It's up in Flint.

"Yet, everywhere else in the country ... in cities like Chicago and St. Louis and Philadelphia, to mention a few, Thanksgiving still is a big day for high school football.

football
"Sure, I know there's a feeling that if we don't get through by the first or second week in November, we might have to play in lousy weather.
"But, our weather hasn't been so bad of late on Thanksgiving. The Lions play okay. Why not the high schools?"
The gent on the other side of the table took another pause.

The gent on the other.

"What's that they say about an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of health! I wonder if our State Association ever heard of this old saying?

"Must we have a fock of tragedies before the big wheels will arise and do something?"

Must we?
