High School Musical Opens Thursday

production of Rogers and Hammstein's 'Oklahoma' will begin a consecutive three evening performance Thursday, Dec. 2, at 8 p.m., in the Franklin High-School lecture theatre. Additional performances will be held on Friday and Saturday evening, "Oklahoma" is a blend of music, comedy and drama, in a more serious mood Curly and Jud oppose one another for the affections of Laurey. While in a comic tone Alie Hakem and Will Farker try to win Ado Annie.

The orchestra will play many memorable hits including "Oh, What a Beautful Morning." "Surrey With the Fringe," "People Will Say We're In Love," and, of course, "Oklahoma."

Principal members of the cast are Livonia students: Brian Pamela Siegfried (Laurey),
