Farmington
TEN MILLS
French and Spanish language classes will be offered at the Ten Mills School on Saturday morning, beginning Jan. 22. The classes, which will continue for ten weeks, will be taught by teachers experienced in presenting languages to elementary students. There will be an $8 class fee per student.

Ten Mills PTA president, Don McGregor, stated that the purpose of these classes will be to expose the children to foreign language early in their school years so that it will not be such a foreign mystery later on. The language classes are open to all interested students in the Farmington area. For further information, contact Mr. Don McGregor, 474-4904.
