Dewline

By JOHN DEV

This Saturday evening, Fred Wolf, former WXYZ wake-upper will be inducted into the Detroit Bowling Hall of Fame. The Hall was instituted in 1927 to honor those persons who have played a leading role in making Detroit "the capital of the bowling world."

As one of the three "shop league boys" who made good, Wolf was a key member of the famed Stone team in the heyday during the '40's. He played a leading role in helping the team reach national championship heights until a back injury suffered in a world championship match forced him to resign as an active member.

This, of course, was considered a tough break at the time, but it opened a whole new world for Fred and started him on the way to becoming a top bowling commentator and later, disc jockey on WXYZ.

Through the years, Fred has moderated such shows as "10th Frame," the ABC Bowling Tournament, and "Champion-

Madrigals Usher in Christmas Joy

By SUE SHAUGHNESSY

Down on the University of Detroit campus they ushered in the Yuletide Season last weekend with a flair. The University held its first in a series of what are termed "Madrigal Dinner-Concerts."

For those who aren't familiar with medieval music the madrigal has its origins in the 15th century. Sung by a mixed group, which is usually smaller than a chorus but larger than a quartet, the madrigal can be tailored to fit the range and ability of the singers.

Mix a series of Christmas Carols, mostly from Elizabethan Britain—in with a roast beef dinner complete with Yorkshire Pudding and Plum Pudding and you have the basic ingredients.

Add candlelight and Christ-

Madonna Postpones One Acts

The evening of one-acts at Madonna College having been temporarily postponed due to unforeseen conflicts, Lee O'Connell, college drama coach, will make a "guest appearance" in another production.

O'Connell will perform the role of Aston in the three-act play by Harold Pinter, "The Caretaker." This well-known theaterist of the absurd's drama will open this week-end at the Concept East Theatre in Detroit. After a special press preview on Thursday, Dec. 9, the production will be presented on week-ends during the holiday season. This three-character, three-act study in personality conflicts was recently made into a full-length film that received critical acclaim.

To View Special Film

"Tidings for Modern Americans" is a 45 minute musical presentation on safe driving and good citizenship sponsored by the Driver Education Department of Chrysler Corporation. It will be shown at student assemblies at 15 local high schools prior to the Christmas recess.

Dates are scheduled for the presentation at: Plymouth High School and Garden City High School, Dec. 15; John Glenn High School in Wayne and North Farmington High School in Farmington, Dec. 16; and at the Benjamin Franklin High School in Livonia and Farmington High School, Dec. 17.

The show features the Supertones, a group of 10 young musicians and singers. During the presentation students are not only musically entertained but receive a short talk on citizenship in the home, the school and on the highway.

POOR POLICY

Petty prejudices allow many people to form opinions without trying to find the facts.

GUARDIAN HENDRY bars out an order at an exhausted Sean Connery in this scene from Kenneth Hyman's production "The Hill," which is currently showing at the Mal Kai and Cinema I Theatres in Livonia, the State Theatre in Wayne, and the Penn Theatre in Plymouth.

Bogart Film Showing Set

"The Petrified Forest," a 1936 thriller, will be featured at the Henry Ford Museum Famous Early Movie Series on Sunday, Dec. 12.

Humphrey Bogart, Bette Davis and Leslie Howard head the cast of this intriguing dramatic presentation. The movie is an excellent adaptation of the play written by Robert E. Sherwood.

Milestone motion pictures made during the past 50 years are shown each Sunday at the Henry Ford Museum.

Stage Makeup Takes Time

Theatrical makeup doesn't make much of an impression when viewed from a distance of two or three feet, but from the audience it's another matter.

Area resident Kelly Burke, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Burke of 22116 Floral Farm, spent an hour to an hour and a half putting on his makeup for the current University of Detroit Theatre production of "Tiger at the Gates" which ran weekends through Dec. 5. Burke appeared in the role of Paris. Actors start with a base makeup and cold cream to make it easy to get off. For eye lines are added with a makeup pencil; for youth, even by less-than-young-actors, light makeup is padded and rubbed on.

Eyes are highlighted, or darkened in Greek and Roman drama when clothing is scanty and a deep tanned skin is called for.
