Rare Chance For Young To See Top Ballet Artists

The Children's Entertainment Guild and Livonia Public Library present the Detroit Severo Ballet Company in "The Nutcracker Ballet" on Saturday, Dec. 18, in the Bentley High School auditorium. Livonia at 2 and 4 p.m.

When the nationally known Detroit Severo Ballet Company appears at the Bentley auditorium for the gala holiday production of Tchaikovsky's "The Nutcracker Ballet," Livonians will have the rare opportunity of seeing a young ballet dancer well on his way to becoming an international dance star.

Mrs. Sandra Severo, Company Director and Choreographer, who has placed many dancers in leading companies in the United States and England (including The Royal Ballet, The Ballet Russe De Monte Carlo, and The American Ballet Theatre), has signed her former pupil, Richard Beaty, for the engagement. She has also created new choreography for his appearance in the perennial Christmas favorite.

Beaty is presently on leave from The American Ballet Theatre, where he rose from the ranks of the corps de ballet to become one of the company's principal dancers. Last year at the invitation of the Netherlands' government, Beaty was asked to dance the lead role in the state supported Het National Ballet Company's first full length production of "Swan Lake."

The performance with Beaty as Prince Siegfried and Russian born Ethery Pagava as Odille met with press and public accolades. Beaty was invited to visit Russia in the Spring of 1966.
