

Bridge Center Gets Filter

A smoke filter is to be installed at the Farmington Bridge Center in the near future. The center hopes to have the filter in and working by Dec. 15.

The apparatus will completely purify the air every six minutes.

The day time Wednesday game has been moved to 12:30 p.m. with no nursery service. The MOP games will still be the first.

Three Are Injured in F'ton Township

Three people were hurt in traffic accidents in Farmington Township during the past week. Those taken to Botsford General Hospital following accidents were:

• Lawrence E. Westberg, 29, 20450 Woodworth, Redford Township;

• Rose Marie Shannahan, 37, 30106 Ten Mile Rd., Farmington; and

• Clare B. Edison, 44, 22800 Middlebelt, Farmington.

Westberg was hurt when a car driven by Arthur W. Kirt, 50, of 28179 Parkhill, Farmington struck the rear of his car on Grand River at the L & D Electrical Plant.

Mrs. Shannahan's car was struck while waiting to make a left hand turn off 10 Mile Rd. Paul G. Solis, 18, of 28809 Gary Field, Farmington, was driving the vehicle which struck Mrs. Shannahan's car.

Mrs. Edison was traveling north on Middlebelt at Eldon when she struck a vehicle driven by Rudolph F. Kirt, 31, of 28809 Gary Field. Kirt told police that he was stopped for a tow truck when Mrs. Edison's car hit him in the rear.

TRADING STAMPS were collected and redeemed for toys by the residents of Lincolnshire Estates. A committee composed of Elaine Plum, Bev Fezzey, and Carol Cramer then presented the toys to the Farmington Area Special Education Committee for use by their classes of deaf children. A bright note was struck when they discovered that they had obtained over and above the necessary amount for their project. They were then able to make a sizable donation to the Plymouth State Hospital.

NEW OFFICERS for Lincolnshire Estates Subdivision were elected Tuesday night in the meeting held at East Farmington High School on Middlebelt. Gordon Cherry was elected president. Assisting him will be Milton Plum as vice-president, James Clark as recording secretary, Bev Fezzey as corresponding secretary. Jim Lewis, Jim Page and Carl Seitz will be trustees.

WELCOME HOME to Walter Williams of Flanders Ave., who is recovering from a bout in Mt. Carmel Hospital.

ALSO ON THE RECOVERY LIST are Ruth Simmons who is home from St. Marys Hospital, and Clare Orlans who has been a patient at Mt. Carmel.

FRIENDS OF WALTER BUCKENKAMP, formerly of Quail Hollow, sent a cheery greeting from the home of the Charles Columbo of Livonia. The Charles Columbo has just returned from California, where they had a long visit with Walt and Irene. Lelaure World in Laguna Hills is the present Buckenkauf abode.

"The party lady" is the title affectionately bestowed on Irene by the neighborhood children because of the parties she gave for the little folk. At her farewell party, Irene gave each child an envelope with her new address written on it, and requested that each child mail her a letter for her birthday.

Mrs. Columbo reports that she was with the Buckenkaufs on Irene's birthday and she was very pleased at all the love and attention she had received. Some of the Sweet Adolescents Singing Group.

RUBEN LEE'S STEAMSHIP was the intriguing title of the restaurant where the Buckenkaufs and the Columbo spent the evening celebrating their anniversary and Irene's birthday. This place is an actual steamship which has been fitted out as a restaurant, and has become a popular eating spot in Los Angeles.

AILEEN SCHENKEL will have a Christmas party for her bridge club as her first party in her new home on Highmeadow. Aileen moved in August but was so busy with her duties in the Farmington Artists Club that this is her first chance for a party. The house will be aglow with Noel decorations, the party foods will be Christmas in theme and holiday punch will be served. Enjoying the festivities will be Mesdames Shirley Olin, Marilyn

F'ton Society Decorates Old Time Tree

An old fashioned tree trimming party was the highlight last week of the December gathering of the Farmington Historical Society.

Members gathered at the home of Mrs. Charles Lorton for the second annual event.

It was an old fashioned tree which was decorated in the Lorton's family room.

Strung popcorn, cranberries, and such made up the decorations. A pot of cider was kept warm on the wood burning stove for the members' enjoyment.

Following the trimming the members sang Christmas Carols. Refreshments were provided by the members and when brought something which meant Christmas to them.

Irene Winnie Elected President

The Farmington Musicals was organized on Wednesday, Dec. 8, at an afternoon meeting held at the home of Mrs. Irene Winnie, 23226 Craftsbury, Farmington.

The Musicals, which is to be affiliated with the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs, will hold monthly meetings on the fourth Wednesday of every month, from 1 to 3 p.m.

A musical program was presented by Shirley Strey, pianist. Mrs. Strey performed the "Ronde in a minor" by C. F. E. Bach, and the "Harp Etude" by Chopin.

Twenty charter members formed the new musical organization. Sharon Bass, Carol Betz, Joyce Bigelow, Dolores Ciepla, Mary Harrison, Karen Kelly, June Rado, Faith Hickey, Dorothy Elley, Verna Roberts, Sally Sanfield, Margaret Savelly, Bea Scaglione, Angeline Soo, Shirley Strey, Pat Szumanski, Marilyn Truitt, Evelyn Umphrey, Marie Walick and Irene Winnie.

Officers selected as the executive board are as follows: president, Irene Winnie; vice president, Marilyn Truitt; secretary, Pat Szumanski; treasurer, Margaret Savelly; program co-chairmen, Shirley Strey and Karen Kelly; publicity co-chairmen Pat Szumanski and Marie Walick; hostess co-chairmen, Joyce Bigelow and Sharon Bass.

Mrs. Mary Harrison will serve as club pianist. Bea Scaglione as parliamentary and June Rado as achievement records chairman. Assisting on the hostess committee will be Dolores Ciepla. Program committee members are Faith Hickey, Verna Roberts and Angeline Soo.

All those who love good music in the community are invited to participate in the Farmington Musicals, either as active (performing) or associate (appreciating) members. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, Jan. 28, at 1 p.m. Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Winnie at 476-7844.
