

Sweet Adelines Schedule Concert
The S.O.C. Suburbanette Chapter of Sweet Adelines, Inc. will entertain at Farmington Methodist Church Thursday (tomorrow) at 8 p.m. with a program of Christmas music, under the direction of Mrs. Thomas Rade of Farmington.
Mrs. Ken Sanders and Mrs. William Greene are members of the Left-Dovers quartette which will feature special numbers. Other Farmington residents in the chorus are Mrs. Howard Hendry, Mrs. John Courville, Mrs. Don McEachin; also Mrs. Russell Gilbert singing tenor in a double quartette. Mrs. Dean McCallister of Livonia and Mrs. James Weigle of Garden City also perform.
This chorus is a consistent first-place winner in barbershop singing contests, and will host a Regional convention to be held in Detroit next April.

Wally Roberts
'CURTAIN GOING UP'

Busy as you might be with shopping for Uncle Ned, Sister Sue, Brother Ben you might consider the purchase of some unique gift certificates or advance theater tickets. Gift certificates are now available for the Stratford Festival.

A postal card to the Stratford Festival Box Office will provide you with a form or two for your friends. You or your friends might have been saying for years, "I've just got to get over to the Festival." A gift certificate will solve the hesitancy factor. You'll be all set to really "go-go" next summer.

Plays at Stratford promise to be as exciting as always. Henry V will vie with "Twelfth Night" for popularity. Mozart's "Don Giovanni" and Strindberg's "Death of a Salesman" appear to be pre-season. Avon Theater favorites already. Old Wally suggests you get the form for gift certificates early and be prepared for a most rewarding cultural experience.

Advance theater tickets for "Sweet Charity" coming to the Fisher Theater would also be a smart move for the discriminating shopper. All reports from Philadelphia where this new musical opened have indicated that a rousing hit is on its way to the Fisher. "Sweet Charity" will be at the Fisher for four weeks prior to its New York opening.

Given Verdon of "Redhead" and "Pajama Game" fame has the lead. Her husband, Bob Fosse, has fashioned some clever dance routines and his direction of the show has already won high praise. Neil Simon, his Broadway comedies have made him a millionaire, has charge of the hilarious book. You'll have a chance to see this smash hit starting Dec. 23. Be sure to buy your friends some tickets to stuff in those stockings.

A few weeks ago old Wally mentioned the announcement of the Director's Workshop at the Dearborn Player's Guild Playhouse, Outer Drive and Monroe. Harry Arnott, President of the Guild, has now made final arrangements with Bob Wall to conduct the workshop.

Workshop will be held on Feb. 15, 16, 18, and 19. A selected number of guests will be

Hootenannies Entertain State Home Teens
Teenagers at the Plymouth State Home and Training School were entertained at two hootenannies recently conducted by volunteer workers and local service groups.

On Nov. 11, the teens were treated to refreshments and dancing to a group called the "Disciples," made up of Jim Cutler, Terry Krug, George Burchfield, John Morgan and Rowland Deaton.

On Dec. 2, St. John Seminary students presented the entertainment.

Other recent activities at the Plymouth State Home included a party for 30 children provided
