We are going to bring you a special Christmas story over the next two weeks, thanks to Lee Alan of WXYZ. Every year, for the past six years now, Lee has broadcast, no Christmas Eve, the "Story of Michael." It is a tape of a letter, written by a young Marine to his mother sometime in 1950 during the Korean conflict.

The letter is read by a Navy broadcast, the word of the story contained and letter stable to the Marine and he has talked to the Marine and he has talked to the Marine and he has talked to the Marine and he had been stand on it's own merit ... "Remember when I joined the warnes last year? Hemember when I joined the marines hast year? I she marine start year? I she marine start year? I she was to ell you.

I wouldn't dare write this let-ter to anyone but you because no one else would believe it. Maybe even you'll find it hard, but I've got to tell somebody.

ute," he replied, "the name is Michael."
"Is that so," I said, surprised, "That's my name too,"
"I know," he said, and then went on, "Michael, Michael of the morning,"
I was too amazed to say anything for a minute. How did he know my name and the prayer that you had unght me? Then I smiled to myelf, every guy in the outlit knew about me. Radn't it lought the proyer had the morning of the morni
