

MR. and MRS. LLOYD NICHOLS

Plymouth State Home Aided By City Women

The "Forgotten Children" at the Plymouth State Home and Training School, Northville, Michigan will be the happy recipients of more than one hundred articles of clothing, toys, games, jewelry, toilet articles, and naugahyde, leather on Christmas morning.

The Livonia City Woman's Club donated the above articles at their annual Christmas Party which was held at the home of Mrs. Harold Honkala.

A pleasant afternoon of cards followed a wonderful Christmas dinner, complete with roast turkey and all the trimmings.

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Harold Honkala, Mrs. Harvey Mocks and Mrs. Donald Rebb.

Regular meetings of the Livonia City Woman's Club are held at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, 27475 Five Mile Road, Livonia the second Thursday of the month at 1 p.m. Ladies interested in joining an afternoon club may call Mrs. James Beretto, membership chairman, at GA 2-5504.

Do-It-Yourself Gift Making Class Slated

A new course in small gift construction, to be taught by Mrs. Beverly Palmer, will be offered to all interested suburban residents during the upcoming winter term in Livonia's evening schools.

The class, which is designed to teach metropolitan area adults how to make small birthday, Valentine, Easter, and other holiday gifts is one of many arts courses available starting in January. Registration days have been set for Jan. 4-7 at Bentley High School.

Other 16-week fine arts courses offered next term are oil painting, flower arranging, community hand group piano for adults, group guitar, organ, hobbying, creative dance, vocal techniques, drawing, landscape painting, china painting, studio painting, portrait and sculpture in metal.

Most adult education courses run for ten weeks and carry fees from $2 to $14 per term. Tuition is the same for both residents and non-residents of Livonia.
