Westlake News

BY NANCY WILSON 478-4113

We hope everyone had a wonderful Fourth of July and it seems that the Westlakers took advantage of the weather. George and Joyce Laskowsky of South Stockton traveled to Forest Camp Grounds north of Atlanta, Michigan a few weeks ago but rather than camping the children enjoyed milking cows and pitching hay on a farm outside of Onaway.

MARTHA ANDRUDGE of Lansing, Michigan, Kenneth, who is three, is taking a couple of weeks vacation. Peace and quiet reigns in the Andregde household.

Nonna and Florence Briolat attended a wedding in Bad Axe last weekend. Florence's sister, Dorothy Van Zyr, married Robert Schmidt. An enjoyable time was had by all. The Briolats, also, have quite the left Sharon and Renee with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Briolat.

TOM AND NONA Behrend had a backyard picnic Sunday for a few persons. They celebrated Nonna's Father and aunt's birthday. Twenty-five adults and 17 children enjoyed fried chicken, ham and cold cuts.

Jim and Judy Bonem of North Stockton Court also had out-of-town company, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Schewick traveled in from Youngstown, Ohio and from Livonia came Mr. and Mrs. Clark Keller. Both couples are old neighbors of the Bonems.

The welcome mat is out this week for Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Grabowski, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kugler, all who reside on North Stockton Court. Best wishes to you all.

BOB AND JUDY Eastman have just returned from visiting Bob's parents, the S. E. Eastman's in Marinette, Wisconsin. They stayed at a cottage in Ephraim for a few days enjoying the sun. Bob's sister and her husband, the Jack Moore's, and children, Charles, Andy and Tommy. Now with vacation over, Judy is still busy and getting ready for Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis, Cain of Seabrook, Maryland who will stay with them for a few days. Mrs. Cain is a Chicago pal of Judy's.

DAVE AND BARBARA Carlisle and Don and Pat Schaefer traveled with children to the Caberfas Lodge in Cadillac, Michigan last weekend. They all enjoyed the trip but not the traffic.

Ed and Shirley Conner of Glenmore Heights Drive extended Shirley's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Farmer, and four children of Twin Lakes, Michigan for the weekend. Lyle and Pat Rice and son, Brian, have just returned from Silver Lake and the Sand Dunes. They shared a brand new cabin with Pat's parents, the Pat Phillips' and daughter, Suzy. Pat is showing off a newly acquired tan.

DIANE JURNU of South Stockton is having her seventh birthday today and is celebrating with a backyard party. Her guests include most of the neighborhood children. Birthday wishes go to Barbara Bloomer on July 5; Vince Micallef on July 7; and Pat Rice on July 11.

One Anniversary this week and a BIG Bouquet to Ralph and Betty Keegan on July 10.

Selected For Marketing Panel

Robert H. Chrey, 5623 Haven Court, Birmingham, president of the Thompson-Brown Company, Developers, was selected as one of eight of the most prominent builders from throughout the United States, to participate as a panel member in the First Better Home Marketing Conference which was held on Tuesday, June 29, in Chicago. The conference was sponsored by Better Homes and Gardens Magazine.

Carey, whose firm has just introduced Canterbury Commons, a 285-home community on 13 1/2 miles between Orchard Lake and Farmington roads, was also selected as guest speaker at the June 29 meeting of the Central Macomb Development Planning Council. His talk covered the relationship of residential gridiron development to planned unit development which was applied in Canterbury Commons.
