Farmington Meadows

BY NANCY NOBLE

John and Stephanie Burns entertained neighbors at a Fourth of July card party. Enjoying themselves were Bob and Lou Grenier, Vic and Judy Wilkinson, Hank and Marion Orol, Chuck and Mary Wischmeyer and Garry and Nancy Noble. Taking home prizes were Mary and Hank.

New residents Vic and Judy Wilkinson opened their home to old neighbors at a backyard barbeque, and were delightfully surprised with a gift for their new home. In keeping with a colonial theme they were presented with an antique oil lamp. Later in the week Judy also hosted her gals bridge club.

THE FARMINGTON Women's Civic Club along with their husbands enjoyed an evening cook-out at the home of Bev and John Scott. Bev is now a member of the club because of a move to her new home in Plymouth.

Enjoying a jewelry demonstration at the home of Stephanie Burns on Meadowlark were Bette Willard, Lynn Krietz, Dorothy Degnon, Ann Hobbs, Lillian Denzigi, Marion Orol, Judy Wilkinson and Nancy Noble.

Visiting the Greniers of Laurelwood was Lou's mother, Mrs. Grenash, and Ann Arbor came Mr. and Mrs. Al Van Dyken and children to visit the Wilkinsons also of Laurelwood.

With the summer season here vacations and trips are flourishing. Orvil and Elaine Ritterling with sons Scott and Tim journeyed to Nebraska for a two week visit with friends and relatives. The Bill Smiths traveled to Houghton Lake with friends, and the Glenn Stocks spent some time with friends at Higgins Lake. The Wischmeyer clan also vacationed at Higgins, with Chuck and parents, all except Mary who spent her vacation at Mercy Hospital at Grayling suffering from a peritonsillar abscess.

MARY WISCHMEYER

THE YOUNGER SET is also on the go. Tim and Cindy Noble visited grandparents in Windsor where they viewed the Freedom Festival, Fire Words, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Musical Review and also went to Holiday Beach.

Teenagers Mark Palmer, Jim Bird, Dick Tarsney and David Wischmeyer hopped up to Higgins Lake for a fun filled Fourth of swimming, water skiing and dancing at The Music Box.

John and Stephanie Burns celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary by dining at the Elmwood Casino in Windsor and enjoyed Milton Berle's performance.

ELECTIONS WERE held for St. Gerald's Women's Council with the following officers elected: President, Mrs. Paul McLaughlin; Vice President, Mrs. Thomas Nutt; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Charles Crinion; Recording Secretary, Mrs. James Kennedy; and Treasurer, Mrs. Paul Centers.

OUR SICK LIST is almost down to nothing. Rick Hobbs is recuperating from a T&A, Johnny Burns from an abscessed tooth, and Bob Grenier from a misplaced dive in the pool which required four stitches.

Birthday wishes this week go to Scott Ritterling, Diane Brown, Betty Weaver and Judy Wilkinson. Judy enjoyed a surprise birthday cake with neighbors Ann Hobbs, Mary Wischmeyer, Nancy Noble at the home of Stephanie Burns.
