Stone Creek Chatter

PAT SZYMANSKI 476-8296

Well, this is back to biography week and we have three on today's list.

First we have Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy of 24083 Creekside Drive. They have a total of 12 grandchildren. Mr. McCarthy works for Stroh's Brewery as a driver and Mrs. McCarthy recently left her position as seamstress at Providence Hospital. They were great bowlers but now Mrs. McCarthy loves working out in the garden and many times as you enter the sub you can see her raking and planting new additions to their lovely yard.

NEXT ON OUR LIST are Don and Lillian Jack. They have six children: Don, 22, who recently graduated from Lawrence Tech and is now employed by Malloy Manufacturing; Julie, 20, who has just received an engagement ring; Ron, 18, a recent grad; Mary Pat, 14; Mike, 10; and Tina, 9.

Don is employed by Autocart, a division of Jim Robbins Co., as a shop superintendent, and Lillian is working as a teller at First Federal Savings & Loan in Farmington.

Last on our list are Dick and Mary Kay Ray of Grosse Pointe Farms. They have two sons, Michael, 2, and Rick, six months. Dick is a graduate of Michigan Tech where he received his BS degree and is now working on his MPA at the University of Detroit. He is working at GM Diesel as a design engineer. Both he and Mary Kay love fishing and also enjoy games of chess and bridge.

SKIP AND PAT Ellerholz had a busy weekend last week. They attended the wedding of a mutual friend, Bob Wicklander of Farmington. The ceremony was held in Wisconsin and Pat said it was an island quite close to shore and in the evening, with the water all around, it was beautiful. Skip was an usher for Bob and had recently thrown a bachelor party for him. He also celebrated his 22nd birthday on Friday, July 9. He told me a story concerning one of his gifts. His wife, Pat, and Connie George were going shopping to exchange a pair of slacks for him. They were gone about
