

Home In Old Homestead

BY SHIRLEY BERGER

GR. 4-3330
Flo and "Zee" Ziegen returned from a wonderful trip in a friend's new Bonanza airplane just in time to help Mike celebrate his sixteenth birthday, and shortly before they left, it was Carolyn's third. The trip covered 4200 miles in six days, some of the stops being Omaha, Albuquerque, Phoenix, Amarillo, Kansas City and Las Vegas where they stayed at the gorgeous Tropicana Hotel, took in the Follies Bergeres, and the Lido Revue. Flo won $180 from a one-armed bandit, and Mr. Z. got a jackpot.

CATHY COTTER had birthday guests all the way from Mexico, her Aunt Nora Reome and Mrs. Kamal Azzam. Grandma and Grandpa Reome were on hand also. There was a party with guests Reome and Gwen Reome, Kerry and Nancy Leavy, David Karle, Vicki and Scott Edwards, Holly Hurd, Linda Massey, Leslie Babington, and Mark Greenbury. The Cotters spent their vacation at their cottage in Colchester, Ontario. Donna Bouffard had two birthday dinners, one at home, one out at Green Lake with Grandma. The family spent a week out at the lake earlier.

Ann and Charlie Oddo had the ritual dinner out for their recent anniversary. "Nothing special," said Ann, "but very pleasant."
Pam Campbell had a happy fifteenth birthday. Her mother's parents were here from New York for the occasion.
Halers had their twelfth anniversary dinner at Clun-geens. Seafood, of course, a specialty of that restaurant. Al's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Haler, have been visiting from Florida with them.
THE LARSONS HAVE returned from a marvelous month on Lake Michigan near Ludington, but are returning there for the weekend so that Karen, Mary Jo, and Linda can take part in a variety show for which they have diligently practiced.
Linda Massey went to spend her sixth birthday in Detroit with Grandma and Grandpa. Kenny went to "Y" day camp for two weeks winding up the adventure with a night of campfire.

MARC CRAIG had a swarm of cousins over for birthday cake and ice cream on his thirteenth. One of his friends had dinner with him and they finished off the celebration with a movie. The Craigs spent a week with another family at East Jordan on Six Mile Lake and visited Traverse City, the dunes, Petoskey, Charlevoix, and did some rock hunting.
Mary Kay Dale just turned thirteen also and observed that event for three straight days. On Sunday, the family dined at the Mayflower in Plymouth complete with birthday cake. On Monday, they went to see "The Monkey's Uncle," and on Tuesday had the official, at-home birthday cake. Margaret and Allen took a beautiful trip earlier in the summer to New Orleans and the Gulf Coast.
GRUENWALDS started happily off on a trip to Canada; Peppy even had a special inoculation to get him across the border, but after one night they had to head for home as Gail became quite disturbingly ill. All is well now, however.
Old Homesteaders are cordially invited to get together on August 21, at 8 p.m. at the Campbell's pretty new pool-side. Y'all come!

George Hohwart of Farmington, the father of many N. A. Woodworth internationally known industrial products was feted in a surprise ceremony held for him by management and employees in honor of Hohwart's 25 years with the Ferndale company.
The occasion was planned by Woodworth President John A. Stebbins who noted that Hohwart was the company's first 25 year employee. Hohwart who is Vice President in-charge of Manufacturing was hired by Mr. N. A. Woodworth in 1940.
Hohwart is renowned as an industrial engineer and designer and has been a major contributor to Woodworth's reputation for being "First in Work-Holding," said Mr. Stebbins.
HOHWART WAS born near Stuttgart, Germany and received his early formal education in that country. In 1926 he came to the United States working in New York and Rochester before arriving in Detroit in 1929. His engineering education was acquired through correspondence school and in night school while working.

Public Letter Box

(Editor's note: The following is a letter from Governor Romney to the Farmington Vehicle Safety-Check Committee. Mr. Frank Stefani of the Capital Tire Company was the General Chairman for this year's Safety-Check campaign which was staged June 4 and 5.)

Dear Sir:
I have been informed that you have taken a leading part in planning a voluntary Vehicle Safety-Check in your community. Please accept my thanks for investing your time and effort to promote motor vehicle safety through such an important and worthwhile activity.

Until such time as official motor vehicle inspection is made available by the Legislature, the voluntary safety-check is the next best thing. I urge your continued support and participation in this program.

We are particularly interested in the results of your program no matter how large or small. The State Safety Commission has supplied another reporting form in the event yours has been mislaid. The statistics are valuable for both national and state use.

We would also want your committee to receive recognition for their work.

Best wishes for your success.

Sincerely,

George Romney

Returns From 5-Month Cruise

Marine Sergeant Charles R. Deardoff, son of Mrs. Vera B. Deardoff of 21401 Inkster Road, Farmington, returned July 19 to his home base of Camp Lejeune, North Carolina, after completing a five month tour of duty with the landing force of the U.S. Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean.
He is a member of Battalion Landing Team 28 (BLT 28) which is built around the 2nd Battalion, 8th Marines, 2nd Marine Division.
During his deployment the BLT made liberty stops at Naples, Italy; Izmir, Turkey; Cannes, France; and Palma, Mallorca. Other popular sites reached from these cities included Rome, Paris, Nice and Monaco.
