ForestParkNews

BY ARLENE WOLFMAN GR. 61154

Former residents of Ontaga, Junonia and Art Snure, were in town visiting Art's family in a Detroit. Junonia and Art moved to Kansas City a year ago May and enjoyed visiting with their friends in the subdivision a few days. Connie and Herb Fine entertained the Snures with a backyard party, which included many of their old friends — Ann and John Rodewig, Florence and Carl Stark, Sherry and Don Wittenberg, Mary Lou and Bob Douglas, Betty and Ray Horgan, Steve White, Carolyn and John Walther (who bought the Snure's home), Marge Keuping, Pearl and Marty Olshansky, Joan and Chuck Hall, Helen and Vern Niva, Junonia, Art, and children, Mike, Mark and Laurie, left Detroit to visit Junonia's family up north.

Four-year-old Tommy Fine, of Ontaga, is laid up with a strep throat and swollen glands; 13-year-old Susan Hall, West Brandon caught her foot in a car door and is now wearing a cast; and 14-year-old Susan Zuchowski of Leyte has come down with mononucleosis. Get well soon kids.

IN THE COLT LEAGUE All Star Tournament play at the hands of Birmingham. Although Dan Wolfman (of Doreen) picked a fine three-hitter, and Greg Zuchowski (of Leyte) got one of Farmington's four hits, South Farmington lost 2 to 1, putting them out of tournament play. Assisting the All Stars were John Barth (of Malden) who helped keep score, and Terry Springs (of Tredwell) who served as bat boy.

Ann and John Rodewig, together with their children, Margaret, Teddy and Ann, returned from a two-week vacation in a cottage on Oxbow Lake in the Adirondacks. The Cohens, Elaine, Bob, Mark, Jimmy, and Danny, drove to Michigan City, Indiana, for a visit with relatives, stopping off in Battle Creek for a tour of Kellogg's and a free box of cereal; Marlene Nolan joined husband Tom for a two-day business trip, without the children, in Toronto, Canada.

THE FOREST PARK swimmers met with the Farmington Country Club swimming team last week. There was a good turnout of our members from 8 to 16. Although they brought home quite a few second and third place ribbons, they took first place only in the teen boys relay races. Lack of practice explained the defeat. Forest Park is scheduled to swim against Crystal Gardens this week and we are looking for a victorious meet. Good luck, swimmers!

Karen and Chuck Bellmore's residence was broken into early one morning, but the intruder ran without taking anything when Karen awakened. There was an attempted break-in at Helen and Vern Niva's house the next night and the same night Roberta and 11-year-old Schwartz' lawn chairs disappeared. Forest Park residents are cautioned to take all necessary precautions against this sort of thing.

BIRTHDAY greetings to John Dembecki, on August 12; LaRee Hawley, 5, and Angie Oliveri, 9, on the 12th; Mary Ann Collins, 4, on the 17th; Rickey Calligaris, 9, Jim Atkinson, 15, Teresa Bradbury, 6, David Kral, 6, and Larry Schall, 6, on the 20th; Leslie Strang, 4, and Jimmy Ginebaugh, 1, on the 22nd.

Happy Anniversary to new residents, Bob and Virginia Smalz, who, on August 15, will have been married 15 years. Since Bob is still in Venezuela, theirs will have to be a long-distance celebration.
