To appeal to the culturally minded in our community, Beechview Swim Club is holding their second annual art show. On Sunday, August 8, the exhibit revealed works in oils, watercolors and various media. The ribbons awarded for the adult show were: second prize to Ronald Lord for "Tide," a 7' wooden carving and third prize to Wanda Northern for an oil winter scene. The "best of show" gift, the favorite of the voting viewers, was first prize winner Marion Tournaud's autumn oil painting.

This coming Sunday, August 15, schoolage children will show their talent from 1-7 p.m. at the pool. The Pirates Paradise party was a "trifles" affair for its members last July 24. Lil Clark and Jill Emerson, the co-chairmen, claim the success was due in great part to the many assistants. Thanks go to Bettie Wilmer and Jean Martello for their general aid; Dave Wilmer for setting up the lights; Bill May for the PA system; Bob and Hilda Eckel for the gallons of coffee; Chuck and Marie Evans and Dick and June Rader for serving; Leland, the little Hawaiian dancer; and to the "dancing belles of the ball," Steven Martello, John Clark, Dick Smith, and Joe Emerson.

FOR THE YOUNGER members of the B.S. Club, on Tuesday, August 3, 160 kids attended their own party for those 12 and under. Water games, swimming, races, and feasting sent the kiddies happily home, clutching treats in their hands. Pat Alber and Barb Shaw, co-chairmen, wish to thank their staff for their support. Going to Niagara Falls with four children isn't exactly a second honeymoon; but, nevertheless, Jack and Marilyn Betts of Westmeath claim they enjoyed every minute of it. Moving eastward to New York City, they showed Bill, 12, Carol, 10, Jim, 6, and Ann, 4, the "big city" sights. Then for a pleasant farm stay with friends in Binghamton, N.Y., taking side-trips to places like The Corning Glass Co. The children saw a new-born calf and watched a mink, who escaped from a nearby animal ranch, get captured in the barn.

Richard and Peggy Luky of 11 Mile Road motored down to their home town of Cincinnati, Ohio, to pick up their son Dick, 12, who had flown down for a 2 weeks' camping trip. They left Mandy Sue, 10, at the camp and she'll also have a chance to fly home.

A COUPLE of girl scouts, Paula Barry, 12, and Marilyn Allen just returned from a primitive and jolly two weeks camping at Camp Narrin near Clarkston. The girls will be able to apply some of the activities towards merit badges. Paula came home sporting rope burns on her feet which she says anyone can duplicate by simply playing tricks on a pal at night and then to escape, run into a clothesline.

Deb and Al Barsch would call their recent vacation their very best. The plan was to take the children to visit Pittsburgh and then on to Deer Valley, Pa., a YMCA family camping tract with a lodge, family cabins, and all outdoor pleasures. They got to Pittsburgh alright, but when Al crouched to pick up his young son, something happened to his neck, pinching a nerve; and with excruciating pain, was rushed to a Pittsburgh hospital to be in traction for 13 weeks. Bill Vankoughnet of Greythorne also stopped over recently and threw his back out of whack - a pinched nerve again. With pain for a companion, he is anxiously waiting to be put in traction at the Orthopedic Hospital in Highland Park. Men - don't bend over.

Jim Burns injured himself playing baseball last Sunday August 1, July hurried him to St. Mary Hospital in Kalamazoo in the rib area; but, luckily, he escaped fractures. THESE THREE injured males are all baseball players
