A 50th wedding anniversary is a far-off goal to which we all aspire. Mr. and Mrs. George Hequist of Detroit celebrated their 50th anniversary Aug. 15 and were honored on the occasion at an open house by their family. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Barringer of Pipers Lane, and their six grand-children: Bob, 20, Cheryl, 18, Linda, 12, David, 10, Julie, 8 and Mark, 7, 150 guests convened to salute them, some coming from Minnesota and Wisconsin where the couple had dwelled for many years and started their lumber business. A surprise reunion after 32 years with a cousin, Mrs. Rummell of Penn. was a particular joy. Fifty yellow roses sent from other cousins in Wisconsin added to all the floral arrangements and many lovely gifts. Their church, Highland Park Presbyterian, remembered the event with a special Sunday service. As a climax, the Hequist of the Shiras, Mr. Hequist being a member of this singing group, came to serenade them.

Warren and Lois Messers of Westmeath are moving Sept. 1 to Des Moines. Mr. Warren has accepted the position of vice-president in charge of marketing with the Iowa Paint Co. Earlier in August, they flew there to purchase a home in this very different territory. Daughter Julie will remain as a junior at Western Michigan University to continue in her studies in education. Julie has just returned from Florida with friend Donna Kistler of Barwell where they indulged in deep-sea fishing.

Exploring the mid-eastern states in August, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alber and their three children agreed with all the others who passed that way: they found Williamburg in this area.

Farm Bureau Has Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the West Farmington Farm Bureau was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Grinager of 28810 Halsted Road on Tuesday, August 17. Chairman Louis Callen called the meeting to order with the salute of the Flag. Thirteen families answered roll call with a total of 21 people present.

Committee reports were made by the various chairmen. The group agreed that a donation be made to the Farmington Historical Society. There are several members of the West Farmington Farm Bureau who are living on Centennial Farms in this area.

The nominating committee submitted names of candidates for the offices to be voted on at the election meeting in September. Wendell Brown, discussion leader, conducted a very interesting discussion on "Pesticides — How Liable Are You?" It was difficult to realize the many dangers which can arise from careless use and handling of pesticides, and the implications that one is subjected to if improperly handled.

Much credit is due to Mrs. Wendell Green for her excellent choice of programs and "light games" used at these meetings.

Refreshments were served by hostess Mrs. Gwen Grinager, assisted by Mrs. Grace Rexin and Mrs. Ann LaSalle.

The September meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Lapham of 24350 Haggerty Road.

Takes Special Flight Training

Mr. Junior L. Fendt, 34440 Bridgeman, Farmington, participated in a special Flight Training Clinic at Battle Creek, Michigan, August 24-27.

Co-sponsored by the Battle Creek Flying Club, Michigan Department of Aeronautics, and the AOPA Foundation, the clinic offered five courses designed to upgrade the pilot's capabilities.

Mr. Fendt successfully completed the instrument Nav/Com course, which improves the pilot's ability to fly an airplane strictly by reference to flight instruments within the cockpit and utilize the radio receiver for navigation and communication.

Jaime Praised on Serving Motorists

Angel Jaime, a Standard Oil dealer in Farmington, has received a special certificate of commendation from his supplier for "outstanding service and helpfulness to motorists."

Angel Jaime operates the Grand-Halsted Standard Service.

Washington hot but impressive; a phenomenal catch of 63 Jumbo yellow perch.

The Jack Mills of Barwell and their four children had a fabulous week at the Fern resort near Atherly, Ontario. Perfect weather, perky water-skiing, tennis, pony rides, swim in two pools, paddle boating, and contests of all kinds.

It was the Junior High kids who made the occasion turn for their own private party on Aug. 19 at the pool. Water games and dancing to the rhythm of the "Common Lovers" band and not the main entertainment when not feasting. Party planners were: chairman, Fran Ehlers, assisted by Marge Bey with Katie Brakora in charge of food.

On Labor Day we can look forward to a water ballet show presented by the class as the final wonderful event of a very busy summer season.

The leisure time of the Jerry Tooley family took its form in two separate jaunts — one for the benefit of the seven children and one for the benefit of Mom and Dad. The children chose northern Michigan as their playground: conquering the Sleeping Bear Dunes, viewing the Locks, and picking their famous Michigan cherries. To recover, Jerry and Doreen billeted at Shanty Creek, declaring the skiff trip there most thrilling.

If YOU WANT restful charm and a fisherman's paradise, do as Dr. and Mrs. James Kaler and son Jamie did by going to a lodge resort on Manitowish Island in Ontario, Canada. One perfect afternoon, they snagged 26 bass and could hardly expect to sur-

Elem. Principals Hold Workshop

Farmington's Department of Elementary School Principals held its annual all-day August Workshop Thursday, August 19, at William Grace School.

"Community Relations" was the topic of the morning session. Mrs. Marjorie Eicher, community relations coordinator for Farmington Public Schools and Supt. G. V. Harrison spoke and led discussion. Highlight of the afternoon session was a report on Reading Services in the Farmington Schools by reading specialist Kay Van Hoy. Nicholas A. Abid presented a progress report on the Head Start Project which he administered this summer at William Grace School.

Lef-Dovers To Sing At Luau

A quartet composed of local women will entertain at a luau Tuesday, August 31, at Avon Park, given by the Utica-Rochester chapter of Sweet Seline, Inc. Members of the quartet are: Mrs. James Weigle of Garden City, lead; Mrs. William Greene of Farmington, baritone; Mrs. Kenneth Saundry of Farmington, bass; and Mrs. Haig Arabian of Redford, tenor.

This 4-part harmony group was organized in February, 1964, calling themselves "The Lef-Dovers" because three are
