Musician to Play at Church

Samuel Saltar, converted jazz trombonist will present a program of Gospel music on Sunday evening, August 29, at 7:00 at the Southfield Community Church, 21122 Indian St. (between Beech and Inkster, north of Eight Mile) according to Pastor Raymond Bayne.
 Before his conversion, Mr. Saltar played in a number of famous jazz bands, and was acknowledged as an accomplished musician. His conversion brought a radical change in his life, and he is now preparing for the Christian ministry.
 Still an accomplished trombonist, he presents a program of music and the story of his life in a thrilling and fascinating way, which will make this a memorable evening.

 The group is accompanied by the Reverend Hugh Gowan, assistant pastor of Ward Church, and Mrs. Taylor, wife of the director of the Central American Mission. They will return on September 11. Miss Weller is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Weller.

Girl Scout Activities

Robin Woodward of Junior Troop No. 1038 was along with the girls on their four-day camping trip to Camp Narrin on June 18 through 21. Mrs. Virginia Stagle, who has been troop organizer for Alameda School is moving to Connecticut. We will miss her. VICKY PAPKE of Senior Troop 258 and Bonnie Brees of North Farmington Seniors are from South Oakland County Senior Girl Scout patrol attending their own "Little Roundup" at Traverse City for the next two weeks. Other Scouts are Pat Will, Monica Holzer and Beth Dell, all from Berkley. Lynn Secrett of Royal Oak, and Linda Bulford of Troy. Their patrol trainer is Lesley Greenwood of Birmingham. These girls were selected as alternates for the July National Roundup in Idaho.
 The "Little Roundup" began Tuesday, August 10, and for the next two weeks these girls and others from Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana and other parts of Michigan will be at the camp.
 Following the theme of "Program in Action" the girls are to study Scouting in an effort to try and determine why girls don't become Scouts or why girls quit after a few years of scouting. They will make recommendations, tour scenic spots and engage in primitive camping. They swap items and neckerchief slides being taken to the roundup will carry out the car theme being used by these scouts.
 The Oakland patrol will present a Model A Car Theme. A plaque depicting the car and the scout promise was presented to Southern Oakland Council officials before they left for Traverse City. The plaque was made by Beth Dell. This is an honor to be chosen to attend either of the Senior Roundups and the girls work hard towards this goal.

PAPPY REAGON deserves a "Big Thank You" from all of us in the Farmington area. He made all the crates for 250 pounds of books that have been mailed for the Appalachian children in Berea, Kentucky. Mrs. Fred (Bridget) Reagan, with help from Vicky Papke, spent many hours getting books repaired, sorted and finally packed for shipping.
 Home from Central Michigan University was a former Senior, Gail Hamilton, who also came and helped. Gail has a Junior troop of her own. This was a Neighborhood Service Project started too late to be completed, so the Senior troop took over and got books on their way. Helping with costs of postage were Brownie Troop 127, Junior Troop 1038, Cadette Troop 317, and I expect others will be helping as they learn about the need.
