Mr. and Mrs. Robert Frieling Exchange Wedding Vows

Miss Betty Esther Frieling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Robert Frieling of 33906 State Street in Farmington, exchanged wedding vows Saturday, August 14, with Mr. Ward Mitchell Diehl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward M. Diehl, Sr. of 18 Highland Terrace in New Baltimore, Michigan.

The double ring ceremony took place in the First Presby-

Stanley Gowan On Honeymoon In New York

Off on a wedding trip to the Catskill Mountains in New York State are the Junior Stanley Gowan (Patricia Eileen Ruhl) who were married recently at Westminster Presbyterian Church in Detroit.

Antique lace applique enhanced a gown of white perle de sole for the daughter of the Harold A. Ruhl of Farmington. She wore a white veil and carried white orchids and carnations.

Mrs. Michael Seman attended as matron of honor at the site performed by Dr. John Visser. The bridemaids were Sherry Ruhl and Mrs. David A. Kellam, the bride's sisters; Lois Kern, and Judy Armstrong.

John Armstrong, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was the best man. Ushers were: Albert Kirby, Michael Seman, Jim Stokes, and Dr. David Kellam. The bridegroom is the son of the Stanley Gowan of 31949 Rosslyn Street, Garden City.

Some 100 guests were received by the newly weds at a reception at the Danish Hall. Upon return from New York state, the Stanley Gowan Jr. will reside at the Brookdale Apartments, 31831 Grand River in Farmington.

Campers Stage First Outing

The Carefree Conestogas, a Farmington chapter of the National Campers and Hikers Association, had their first camping trip the weekend of August 20, 21, 22 at Paradise Beach near Holly.

The four families attending were Larry and Terry Thomas, Joann and Dick Landers, Wayne and Mary Burton, and Bill and Eileen Carter. The entire group of 23 were invited to a pancake breakfast.

The Carefree Conestogas' next campout will be held on Sept. 24, 25, 26 at Bruin State Park. Families in the Farmington area interested in joining the Carefree Conestogas may get further information by calling Larry Thomas at 474-6067.

Plymouth Sets Fall Festival

A four-day whirlwind of activity will engulf the community of Plymouth, Mich. on Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 9-12, when the annual Plymouth Community Fall Festival is held in downtown Kellogg Park.

ALL ACTIVITIES have been planned to reflect the late 1800's and early 1900's, according to Festival spokesmen, and will provide wholesome family entertainment. Major activities planned are:

Thursday, Sept. 9: "German Night" with knockwurst and beerkraut served by the Plymouth Business and Professional Women's Club.

Friday, Sept. 10: A melon and ice cream social put on by the Plymouth Lions Club.

Saturday, Sept. 11: All-day pancake and sausage festival sponsored by the Plymouth Kiwanis Club.

Sunday, Sept. 12: Chicken barbecue served by the Plymouth Rotary Club from noon to 6 p.m.

During the entire four-day period, the Plymouth Symphony League will sponsor an antique mart open from noon to 10 p.m. Other activities include a German band, harmonica and banjo groups and a female barbershop singing group.

The Festival is open to the public.

Men Sought For Artists' Club

The call is out for male artists as well as female artists to join the Farmington Artists' Club. The first meeting of the season will be held on September 8 at 8 p.m. at the First Farmington Savings and Loan building on Orchard Lake Road, north of Grand River, east of the Farmington Plaza.

The club, organized last year, has openings for painters, both men and women. A spokesman for the group said, "This is not a social club. It is a club for serious artists. We know there must be men in the area who are talented painters and we would like to have them in the club."

Plans are being made for a second art exhibit and sale to be held October 8 and 9 at the First Farmington Savings and Loan building. Entries for the show must be in by September 15.

The club is a graduate of Farmington High School and attended Port Huron Junior College. The bridegroom is a 1965 graduate of Port Huron Junior College and plans to attend Oakland University and work towards a degree in engineering.
