

Rambler Appoints
Director of Exports

Appointment of John L. Houtaling as director of Rambler export fleet and military sales of American Motors has been announced by Alan F. Bethell, director of automotive export sales.

In this new position, Houtaling will direct the operations of Rambler fleet sales in international markets and the military representatives who sell Ramblers to U. S. servicemen stationed abroad through military exchange stores.

HOUTALING, a 30-year veteran of the auto industry, joined AM's export operation a year ago. He, his wife and two children live at 28452 Ridgebrook Road in Farmington.

Forest Park News

GR. 6-1154
BY ARLENE WOLFMAN

With the closing of the Forest Park Pool thanks to Barry Swiss, pool director and Nancy Doer, his assistant, the pool, while a cooperative chairman of the pool committee; to all his pool, hard-working and knowledgeable workers; to the teens who labored in the pool in the many odd jobs required and to Mary and Jim Heumann for their handling of the concession stand.

THE "HIGHLIGHT" of the season was the annual Aqua Antics which took place Saturday, September 4. This year's theme was Western Follies, with Marshall Borgman serving as master of ceremonies. All participants appeared in western garb. The scenery, consisting of the Big Cage Saloon and the Forest Park General Store, a small covered wagon and a large canoe, were superb. The comedy sketch with Bob Negoshian, Mike Page, Jim Atkinson, Ernie Schlager, Chuckie Negoshian, Greg Schaeffer, and Jerry Kuehne, John Denbecki, was delightful. The synchronized acts beautified and Jennifer Holappa's "Indian Princess" solo was exceptionally well done.

"Ten Little Indians" which was carried out in fluorescent feathers and was painted was very effective, and Nancy Doer's and Barry Swiss' due was pure grace.

The boys and girls who took part in the show were Beth White, Debbie Jourdan, Sue Wolfman, Kathy Ebling, Karen Reginek, Pat Siegelki, Karen Jourdan, Debbie Mulcahy, Karen Nolan, Debbie Mulcahy, Roni Pretzloff, Linda Zuchowski, Sheila Page, Mary Horrigan, Laurie Stark, Jennifer Holappa, Bill Burry and Mike Stewart.

One of the best features of the water show this year was the demonstration given by the very young pre-beginners. Such was the case again this year, with these little ones "diving" into the deep end of the pool and swimming to the pool director. After the show, all the participants joined in a
