This Is Kimberley

BY VERA R. KERASTAS

474-3237

"Long Live the Queen" - Rose Ann O'Callahan that is Rose Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Petrus of Pipers Lane Ct., recently won the title of Birmingham Ski Queen and will have the honor of representing the Birmingham Ski Club in the state-wide finals given by the Metropolitan Detroit Area Ski Council in October at Ford Auditorium. Best wishes for your Kimberley court.

Attention girls who are 10 years old or in the 5th grade: If you want to belong to an active corps of girls your own age; to participate in fun activities; and explore the possibilities in the campfire program, Mrs. Maria Hawk, leader, needs you. Actually, a canvass of all girls from 7-11 will be solicited next week in hopes of recruiting more young ladies interested in this extracurricular activity. Mrs. Jean Mariello at 476-4080 can answer most inquiries.

If you're in Junior High or High School, don't be overly surprised if Mrs. Hilda Eckel of Barwell marches into your classroom. Mrs. Eckel has offered to be a substitute teacher in the Farmington School system this semester.

ALSO UNDERTAKING new adventures this fall, Betty Mageau of Fiddlers Green and Mary Lawson of Kiltartan accepted positions with Crowley Milner Co. in the Livonia Mall. Mrs. Mageau will be selling in the boys' department and Mrs. Lawson will be stationed in the junior miss wear.

Another pursuing the education field, Mrs. Mieke Ruffing of Kiltartan is teaching 5th and 8th grade English every morning at Our Lady of Sorrows School. The Ruffing's, by the way, have just recovered from a nightmare. Son Ronnie, 10, had flu the end of August like many others. But his progressed to the point that he was rushed into isolation at Children's Hospital. There a spinal tap revealed that Ronnie was suffering from the very serious virus-encephalitis. Since there is no medication known for this malady, it has to run its course. After 3 1/2 days of anguish for the family, lucky Ronnie was permitted to come home.

THE BARRINGERS have had their share of flu too. Only Maria's turned into bronchial pneumonia which kept her bedfast for a week. She barely began to navigate when husband Wallace had his turn home with walking pneumonia.

Bruce Longfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Longfield of Greythorne, discovered that racing your bike down the hill behind the pool is a good way to 1 - wreck your bike, 2 - get knocked out, 3 - get a pain in the neck, and 4 - sport a brace on a broken collarbone. He's back at school but the bike is still out of commission!

Masters Stevie, 4, and Mike, 3, Lord, of Westmeath graciously invited their close friends to their luncheon birthday party on September 8. Enjoying the games, birthday cake, prizes, and sporting marvelous manners were Lisa Dussen, David Hawthorne, Drew Norton, Jan Shaw, David Shea, and Kim Stinnett.

PREVIOUSLY being residents of Dearborn, William and Betty Patterson moved into their Pipers Lane home last month. A five minute dash is all Bill needs to get to work as manager for the National Bank of Detroit at Twelve Mile and Farmington Roads. When Bill is off golfing, and Tom, 10, and Louise, 8, are at school, Betty likes to design and sew her own clothes, preferably with an eye on the latest Paris fashions.

From Defiance, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Travis Bowden have transferred their brood of five to the former Coffin residence on Greythorne. Travis works for P. Grissom-Baile dealer. The children, Susan, 15, Diane, 14, Larry, 13, Michael, 7, and Nancy, 5, all attend the Farmington Public Schools. Both Travis and Sue are keen on golf and bowling. The Bowden's made a special trip back to Defiance in hopes of locating their cat who was missing on moving day. Yes, she was waiting on the door-step fox, them.

Moving into the former Messer home of Westmeath, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hickey have transferred to Kimberley from Adrian, Michigan. Mr. Hickey is a manufacturer's representative for Turrell Company, Inc. Their five boys attend five different schools: Bill (20); attends Sacred Heart Seminary; Michael (19) goes to Michigan State University; David (18) answers at Our Lady of Sorrows; Patricia (13) is at St. Joseph; and Daniel (10) is a Beechview.

Timmy Burnside and his mother tenderly nursed from early spring his one and only but much prized pumpkin. Golden-orange and at least 14" high, it was the envy of all. Last weekend, envy turned to greed, for someone stole this prize. At the age of seven, Tim is learning the bitter facts of life early.

Those boy scouts really plan for the future! This Saturday, Sept. 25, Boy Scout Troop 175 will sell Halloween candy in our community in hopes of raising enough money for summer camp next year.

Hill-Dale Garden Club Has Displays

The Hill and Dale Garden Club of Farmington was well represented at the Michigan Horticultural Society Flower Show held at the Belle Isle Casino this week.

In the pedestal class, "Autumn Selves Her Accounts in Gold," Mrs. Edward Kustroon won the blue ribbon (first); Mrs. Bruce Simonsen won the yellow ribbon (third); and Mrs. John King (president of the club) also exhibited in this class.

In the pedestal class, "Mighty Colorful This Morning," Mrs. Warren Kruger won the yellow ribbon (third); and Mrs. Rina Sovel was awarded honorable mention with a white ribbon as her trophy.

Mrs. Edward Rosinski (winner of four blue ribbons and two red ribbons at the Cobo Hall Show) was awarded a tri-color ribbon for her table setting "Hunters Breakfast".

Specialist Cole will be taking part in continuous surveillance missions designed to provide immediate notification of any aggressive activities along the northern sector of the East-West German border.
