BARBARA SECHRIST and her daughters Vicki and Wendy were "happy wanderers" this summer when they traveled to Erie, Pennsylvania. They didn't stay in one spot but took trips to visit all the aunts and uncles in the area. They stayed at Grandmother's farm for most of their visit. They had a ball feeding the animals and gathering eggs. Vicki had the thrill of a lifetime when she was allowed to drive the tractor. En route to Pennsylvania the Sechrists stopped off at Cedar Point, Ohio for a few days. Hubby Jim joined the family in PA for the final week of vacation before heading homeward and attending to readying Vicki for her first day of kindergarten. On their return trip they stopped to see Maryland Forest, a place where nursery rhymes are displayed in life size replicas. The children are allowed to visit the Old Woman in Her Shoe and many other Mother Goose characters. The family is now settled peacefully with Vicki now in school.

THE MEETING of the Stone Creek Homeowners Association was held on Thursday, Sept. 16. For the benefit of all new members everyone introduced
