THE GRAND BALLROOM of the Sheraton Cadillac Hotel, Detroit, was the scene recently of "High Fashions for Higher Education," a benefit fashion show sponsored by the Tri-County Osteopathic Women's Auxiliaries. More than 500 women from Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties attended the fund-raising benefit. All proceeds from the show will be turned over to the Michigan Osteopathic College Foundation. Among those participating in the special benefit were (left to right): Mrs. Lester Schaeffer, 25006 Middlebelt, Farmington; Mrs. Wayne Walker, 31515 Alabama, Livonia, who acted as a model; Mrs. Norman Cash, 29201 Greyfield, Farmington, who also modeled; and Mrs. Milton Plum, 25040 Cadzereigh, Farmington, also a model.

Forest Park News

BY ARLENE WOLFMAN GR. 61154

Congratulations to Shirley and Dick Pretzlaff, of Doreen, on the birth of daughter, Renee Lynn, born on September 15. Renee weighed 8 lbs., 1 oz. at birth and was welcomed home last week by her ten year old sister, Ronda, and three year old brother, Robbie.

The recent announcement of the engagement of Pat Lazar, daughter of Jerry and Louis Lazar of Tredwell, was placed in the newspaper as a not-so-funny joke by some friends of Pat. The picture used was Pat's graduation picture, copies of which she had handed out to many of her friends. Neither Pat nor her parents appreciated the "humor" of this announcement.

There's no mistake, however, concerning the wedding plans of Rick Bradbury, son of Jean and Richard Bradbury of Inkster Road. On October 16, Rick will wed Dolly Kolbasa, of Farmington. Dolly was graduated from Our Lady of Sorrows in 1964, and Rick is a 1964 graduate of Farmington High School.

JOYCE OSUND celebrated her twelfth birthday with a pajama party attended by Cindy Strey, Karen Reginek and Helen Schwab.

Jack Huebner's average went up a few points after Sunday night's bowling in the Forest Park Couples League. Jack bowled a 202, 203 and 222 for a 627 series. Cora Zuchowski, of the same team, bowled a 195 game.

Fran and Harry Spriggs, of Tredwell, have sold their home and will be leaving the subdivision soon. The Spriggs family plan to take up temporary residence in Detroit until the completion of a home they will build in Brooklyn, Michigan, about twelve miles outside of Tecumseh, where Harry Spriggs is presently employed. This will mean several more months of daily commuting between Tecumseh and Detroit for Harry.

The Forest Park Garden Club held its annual membership tea at the home of Rita Crudele of Leyte. Despite the threatening weather of the evening, there was a nice turnout, including about eight prospective new members. Helen Moorhouse brought along a most unique horticultural display comprised of vegetables and flowers grown in her garden. Barb Maxon presented a list of the forthcoming programs of the Garden Club which holds promise of a most interesting year.

ROBERTA AND Lloyd Schwartz, of Doreen, left their children, Lisa and Joel, in the care of Roberta's parents, and drove to Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, the weekend before last for a short visit with Lloyd's aunt, who was quite ill.

The birthday and anniversary greetings extended in my last column were certainly well in advance of the occasions. The dates listed as September are actually October, so they will be repeated next month at the proper time.

Birthdays for the second half of September are Bob Smat,

Theatre Owner Here 25 Years Postmaster Commended

Eddie Hebler, proprietor of the Civic Theatre in downtown Farmington, is celebrating his 25th anniversary in business here.

A letter from Fred M. Seibert asking the City Council to extend an appropriate expression of congratulations was read at Monday night's regular Council meeting.

The councilmen agreed to have the city manager send a letter of congratulations—but not before considerable discussion. The concern of councilmen was that many businessmen have owned businesses here equally as long or longer and it had not been a practice in the past to send congratulations of this kind.

Farmington Postmaster Henry Trombley has been commended by William H. Neal, National Director of the U.S. Savings Bonds Division, for his leadership and service to the Treasury's School Savings Program.

In a letter to the Postmaster, Mr. Neal pointed out that a successful School Savings program—through which pupils buy U.S. Savings Bonds at school on a regular basis—"requires the joint cooperation of teachers, parents, and volunteer workers—and, above all, good service by the post office."

Savings Bonds in five denominations, from 10 cents to $5, are on sale at all times at the post office, and on Stamp Day in schools.
