The Halloween Party held at the pool for the youngsters of the subdivision was a great success, with the costumed trick-or-treaters enjoying cider and doughnuts. Prizes for the best costume were awarded to Jimmy Cohen — a pumpkin; Greg Hampton — a clown; Darlene Soderstrom — a gypsy; Kerry Douglas — a witch; and Timmy Nolan, a Viking.

Local Man Wins Dems. New Mustang

Oakland Democrats this week announced the winner of their annual Jamboree door prize. Mr. Finly H. Gould of 26723 Greythorne Trail in Farmington, received a new Mustang when his name was drawn by White Lake Supervisor, Ed Chey, as the climax of the evening's activities.

Mr. Gould, married, the father of four children told the assembled Democrats he owned two cars, Volkswagens, and was happy to move into the "big car" class.

Oakland Democrats also honored Mrs. Sonia Bensman, wife of South Oakland Ticket chairman Ralph Bensman, 21821 Kenosha, Oak Park, for her personal sales record of over 1100 Jamboree tickets sold.

port 204 agencies. Sue Newell and Carolyn Hall were District chairmen, and those who gave their time in the door-to-door campaign were Alvin Daly, Rita Crudele, Mirja Hoelt, Barbara Dobrowski, Mary Stewart, Sherry Wittenberg, Elaine Cohen, Phyllis Millman, Yvonne Morrison, Mae Abrams, Betty Wooten, Sheila Oberdorf, Jean Timpe, Peg Lytle, Kay Weber, Marilyn Cook, Rose Held, Virginia Slator, Mrs. Richard Wertz and Mrs. Carl Degenhardt.

MARSHALL BERGSON is home recuperating from surgery and his major concern at the moment is possible addition to daytime television during the next two weeks.

Ken and Carolyn Hall's thirteen year old daughter Sue had her first teenage party, complete with "live" music including drums and three steel guitars.

David Waldman celebrated his third birthday with friends Cheryl Warshawsky, Joel Schwartz, Tommy Wolfman, Robbie Pretzloff and Jeff Bergson. Besides hot dogs for lunch, cake and ice cream, the young ones were treated to a showing of cartoons.

At the recent Charles F. Warren show, the Forest Park Garden Club was represented by Barb Maxon and Rena Sovel, whose arrangements were displayed, and for which they were presented with a silver serving tray, and by Rita Crudele, Sylvia Braunstein and Faith Rickey, who, together with Barb and Rena, served as hostesses. Each of the ladies received a sterling silver spoon-shaped pin for their participation.

A postwedding shower was given by Doris Freeman for her daughter-in-law, Anita, which was well attended by the family. Attending the shower from the subdivision were Grace Holappa, Rita Crudele, Rena Sovel and Marlene Nolan.

THE PINOCCHIO Club held its playoffs recently at the home of Barb and Matt Maxon with the following results: First place award of a trophy and $35 went to Marge and Art Cummings; second place of $30 to Mae and Gene Abrams; third place of $25 to Joanne and Tom Doyle, followed by the Leo Kostanov, Carl Starks, Don Eblings, Matt Maxons, Chuck Williams, Bob Weirachs, Joe Philipps, Jack Hamptons, Sam Camp, Larry Bonchers, Ron Bones, Dolph Anselmis, Floyd Kins, Emil Schmidt, George Rickeys, John Brown and a last place trophy and $2 to Stella and Clem Smigielaki. For those who might be interested, the tournament runs for eight months and will start again in January. Meetings are once a month. For further information call Muriel or Floyd Kin at GR. 6-5032.

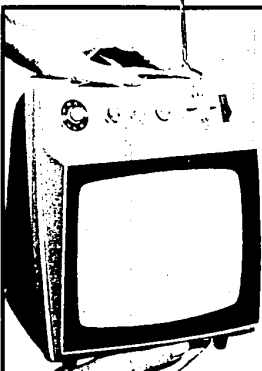

Members of the Forest Park Garden Club are again selling those luscious fruit cakes. They are available now and may be purchased from Barb Maxon or any Garden Club member.

Happy Birthday to Marsha Smigielaki on October 26; Greg Irey, 14, Kren Unger 16 and Rocky Newell, 9, on the 27th; Sheila Page, 11, on the 28th, and David Waldman, 3, on the 30th.

Anniversary greetings to Peg and Bill Isbell, of Doreen, on October 29.
