

Area Activities

Coordinated by MRS. ROBERT KULL

474-8411

The Camp Fire Girls program in the Farmington area is showing new faces this year. In addition to our Blue Birds, Camp Fire Girls and Junior High Camp Fire Girls, an announcement is out about the formation of a new Horizon Club. Mrs. Marvel Steiger, who has organized three groups and assisted in the organization of several others in this area, will act as advisor for the new group.

Randolph New WWI Group's Commander

R. Virgil Randolph was installed as commander of the Farmington Barracks, Veterans of World War One, on November 16, before a group of about 60 veterans and ladies. The installation by William T. Foster, Commander of the Fifth District, V. W. W. 1, followed a dinner prepared by the ladies. Other elected and appointed officers to serve in the ensuing year, installed at the same time, were: Jess O. Billa, Senior Vice-Commander; Fred H. Schaupeter, Junior Vice-Commander; Fred H. Maas, Quartermaster; Gilbert D. Crook, Chaplain; William C. Carpenter, Cecil R. Cameron and James Nourjian, Trustees; Fordon A. Niles, Adjutant; Oscar L. Klein, Publicity Officer and Historian; George T. Crook, Guard; and Rol P. Mathieu, Legislative Officer.

Slate Lecture By Naturalist

Donald Hollums, naturalist for the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, will be the guest speaker at Flanders Elementary School in Farmington on Thursday, Dec. 2. Students will hear a lecture entitled "Let's Watch Wild Animals". The appointment was requested by Frank Derewsky, principal at the school.

new Field Director for Oakland District. She graduated from Ohio State University and was a social worker for the Ohio Juvenile Court. Mrs. Murphy has been a community leader in the United Fund Torch Drive, American Red Cross, Michigan Cancer Fund and her church. Recently she completed a University of Michigan extension course in advanced training for career women.

Mrs. Murphy, a resident of Dearborn for the past 15 years, has two children; a daughter, Lynn, who is a sophomore at Bowling Green University, and a son, Dick, a junior at Dearborn High. For the past two months she has been working with Mrs. Zosh Ragan of Southfield, our area leader, in helping organize new groups in an area that extends from Royal Oak to Milford. Meeting with established leaders and assisting in the leadership training classes have also been on the agenda. In a very short time, June Murphy has become identified as a leader whose pleasant manner and enthusiasm are getting things done.

THE NEW BUILDING which will house the Detroit Bank and Trust Company offices on Grand River Avenue just west of Middlebelt in Farmington Township is rapidly nearing completion. Customers are offered plenty of parking room at the rear of the new building which is going up right next to the present branch office (extreme right in picture). Detroit Bank and Trust won't have far to go when the time comes for the opening of their new building.

Cartwright Named To G.O.P. Post

The appointment of John P. Cartwright to the position of Organization Coordinator for the 19th Congressional District was announced today by Oakland County Republican Chairman Dale A. Feet. Cartwright will be responsible for all organizational activity in the new 19th District.

Married, Cartwright resides with his wife, Beverly, at 7115 N. Tratham. A graduate of Albion College and the Detroit

College of Law, he is employed as a Tax Attorney in the office of general counsel at Ford Motor Company.

Cartwright has served as Precinct Captain, Township District for West Bloomfield Township and as representative to the State Central Committee from the 19th Congressional District. He is a member of the 19th District Executive Committee and the Executive Committee of Oakland County.

State Bd. Certifies Local Landscaper

A Farmington man, John V. Kudarski, 25066 Springbrook Drive, was approved for certification as a landscape architect at a meeting of the State Board of Landscape Architects held Nov. 12 at Lansing. Under Michigan law the registration of landscape architects is required. Approvals of the board are referred to Agricultural Director B. Dale Ball for certification.

The Woman-shaped Slip COMPLI-FIT by Warners

It doesn't hang... it fits! It's a Compli-Fit slip by Warners. The lady bodice is set in, seamed and shaped to follow the contours of your body. It keeps the separation your bra gives you with a cleverly placed center anchor. Why a Compli-Fit? Why not. It's made of easy-care nylon tricot, costs no more than a non-fitting slip, and so important... it's made by Warners, people who understand how a woman is shaped! 4015; S 32-40, A 32-40, T 34-40, white, black, two colors, $6.00. in our lingerie department.
