Vocal Dept. at East Jr. High
To Present Holiday Concert

The East Junior High Vocal Department and the Farmington Festival Orchestra will present their annual holiday concert on Thursday, December 16. The program will be held in the East Junior High gymnasium at 8 p.m.

Featured in this concert will be the Titen Singers, a special group of twenty-five girls, the Jubilaires, and the Festival Orchestra which is comprised of outstanding band, string, and percussion players from each of the Junior and senior high schools.

Special numbers will include the Chanukah Festival Overture by Richard Wernich and performed by the Festival Orchestra and the Girl's Glee Club; Fruitcake, performed by Choir, and other secular and sacred numbers.

Tickets may be obtained at the door. All are cordially invited to attend.

JOHANNA W. COERT
Mrs. Johanna W. Coert of 3500 Freedom Road in Farmington passed away on Friday evening, December 3, in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, following an extended illness.

Mrs. Coert was born in Holland on June 25, 1892, the daughter of Anthony and Anna DeBoes. On July 27, 1912, she was united in marriage to Henry Coert. Sr. Mrs. Coert had lived in Farmington for the past two years.

Funeral services took place on Tuesday at 9 a.m. from Lain & Son's 55th Street Chapel in Chicago, Illinois. Interment was in Mt. Hope Cemetery, Chicago.

Surviving besides Mr. Coert are a daughter, Mrs. Jean Locke of Cincinnati, Ohio and a son, Henry Coert, Jr. of Farmington. She also leaves one brother, Anthony DeBoes of Hollywood, Florida and three grandchildren.

Arrangements were in charge of the Thayer Funeral Home of Farmington.

VIOLA M. YAUGER
Mrs. Viola M. Yauger of 32700 Cadillac Avenue in Farmington Township passed away suddenly at her residence on Thursday afternoon, December 2.

Mrs. Yauger was born in Detroit on March 4, 1927, the daughter of Gordon and Mary Ann Gallagher. She attended school in Detroit and on November 27, 1947, was united in marriage to James G. Yauger.

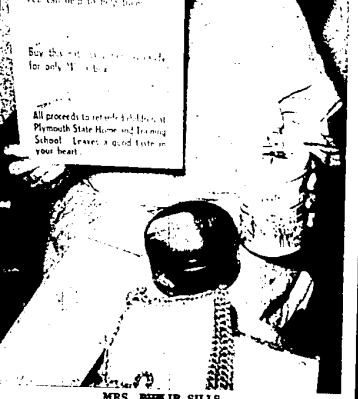

Mrs. Yauger had lived in Farmington for the past 15 years and was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary - Unit 346 of Farmington. FUNERAL SERVICES took place on Monday at 1 p.m. from the Chapel of the Thayer Funeral Home with the Rev. Frank A. Corzad of Orchard Methodist Church officiating. Interment took place in Grand Lawn Cemetery, Dearborn.

Surviving besides her husband, James, are three daughters, Linda, Sharon and Diane, and one son, Danny, all at home. She also leaves her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gallagher of Detroit, and two sisters, Mrs. Louis Gill of Livonia and Mrs. Gordon Harty of Southfield, and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Paquette of Redford Township.

Probably no one in Farmington works harder during the holiday season than Mrs. Philip Sills of Beacon Drive. Through-out the year Mrs. Sills and her husband work ceaselessly for and with unfortunate children. Somehow, just before Christmas, they work even harder; spend more hours helping the children.

Each Saturday morning you'll find Mrs. Sills at First Farmington Savings selling candy, Christmas cards and specially-made gifts. All proceeds from these sales go directly to children.

A number of days throughout the week Mrs. Sills may be found at Plymouth State Home working with the children. She helps and encourages them to stand and walk. She feeds them, loves them, or just amuses them. Other days Mrs. Sills is devoting her time and energy to the retarded children at Fort Custer.

Each year, however, it becomes increasingly difficult for Mrs. Sills to accomplish everything. When she works for the children, she gives completely of herself. So often she is tired. This is when extra hands can lighten the load. If anyone would like to contribute time, gifts, or a little of themselves to the children, Mrs. Sills may be contacted at GR. 4-3032.

CHRISTMAS DAY is brighter for many boys and girls, thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Sills. They collect and wrap hundreds of gifts. It wouldn't be Christmas without both of them going through the wards distributing gifts and happiness.

Women of Kendallwood

Women of Kendallwood Farms - we need your help! Once again amid the hustle and bustle of the Christmas rush, we hope you will find time to devote one of your busy days ahead to helping unwrap and acknowledge some of the hundreds of packages sent to the Plymouth State Home and Training School.

There are many dates from which to choose: December 2, 13, 16, 17, 20 and 21 are the dates, and you can meet with others from our club in the Kendallwood Shopping Center early enough to be out to the home by 9:30, so you won't have to drive out there all alone. You can work as long as you wish; probably leave in order to be home for the children getting home from school. TIE WORK WILL be rewarding - let it be a "gift" of your time to these unfortunate children, some of whom cannot even open their own packages. Please call Mrs. Roland Ringquist, at 474-0807, if you wish to help with this project.

We thank you for your support of the Telephone Bridge and Pinochle Parties held last week, for this enabled you to complete our plans for helping to outfit new training kitchens being built at the home. Mrs. Roland Ringquist, our club hostess, reports that with the help of Mrs. Ralph Lennis and Mrs. Robert Overfield, items have already been purchased to donate. There were 44 tables, with 178 card players, supporting this project. First prize in Pinochle went to Nicky Clark, and second to Millie Welch; while the first prize in Bridge was won by Joyce Gregory, and second by Del Stegler. We'd like to express our appreciation to the hostesses who opened their homes for an enjoyable evening to all who participated.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hart of 22333 Hawthorne, Farmington, announced the engagement of their daughter Peggy Ann to Mr. Harry G. Abbey Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Abbey Sr. of Farmington. The couple plan to be wed Jan. 8, 1966 at Our Lady of Sorrows Church. The bride-elect and her fiancé are both graduates of Our Lady of Sorrows High School.

Local Man Tangles with Giant Bear

Probably one of the first hunters to shoot a bear on opening day while hunting in Rexton in the upper peninsula Saturday morning was Ray McMullen of 32715 West Farmington Road, owner of Ray's Landscaping. The bear was scurrying along on all fours, hugging the forest floor, hidden by thicket and brush. Then it stopped abruptly and rose like a tower on its two hind feet. Ray immediately shot and the bear fell. Ray approached cautiously with knife in hand. The bear was face down. Ray knelt to take a closer look. The bear rolled over and reared up. Ray sunk his 8" blade deep into the bear's throat and the bear fell dead. The bear weighed 200 lbs.

Yule Party Set For Handicapped

The Handicapped Association for Retarded Children will hold their Christmas Party on Friday, December 17, at East Junior High, 25000 Middlebelt Rd., from 7 to 10 p.m. There will be entertainment and refreshments; and, best of all, Santa Claus will be there to greet the younger children.

Blue Star Mothers Plan Veterans Christmas Visit

The Blue Star Mothers' annual Christmas trip to Maybury Sanatorium will take place on Thursday, December 7. This is the day Chapter 49 will present to each hospitalized veteran a Christmas package containing homemade cookies, candy and other goodies. The Mothers look forward to this day as much as the veterans, since it is their main purpose to aid veterans and their families whenever the need arises.

At the regular November meeting a report was given on the National Convention of Blue Star Mothers which took place in Miami, Florida. Irene Kreuger was the local representative. Members were glad to see Virginia Lindsey back. She had been hospitalized and then confined to her home for some time and was missed. Also the good news was announced that Ethel Lint's husband is home after a pretty severe bout in the hospital.

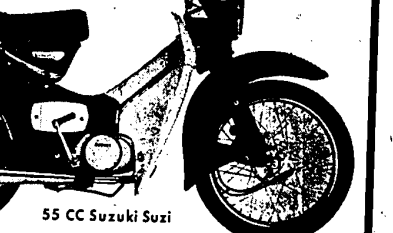

TIE CHAPTER - MOTHERS were very saddened at the death of one of their long time members, Bertha Werschlin. Bertha was a very hard worker in the chapter and up to a few weeks ago, though her body was wearing away and wracked with pain, she continued to make aprons for the group and attend meetings. Members will miss her smile but thank the Lord for ending her suffering and allowing her a peaceful death.

Stage Mayfair Bridge Night

Thirty-five tables of bridge players competed at the Mayfair Bridge Club this past week. The special Men's and Women's Pairs game on Tuesday night was won by Ray Covey and Mel Janke and Kay Bendelow and Charlene Janke. The Janke's were back on Friday night to take first place in their section in a master point game. Anyone for bridge lessons? OTHER TEAMS WITH outstanding scores were Len and Alice Scott, Joseph Allaire and John Cullen, Jack Dunleavy and Shirley Young, Laurette Oak and Madelyn Ebersole, Betty Pope and Helen Bernadine, John Meier and Ken Cymbalski, Lottie Williams and Margaret Hayes, Angie Hamilton and d. Ross, MacTherson, Claude Bennett and Sally Simons. Tuesday night, December 14, will be the first regular master point game for the year at Mayfair. Games are played at 32905 Northwestern Hwy., at 14 Mile Road, above the Northwest Bowling Lanes. For further information call MA. 6-2109.

This year, instead of the Chapter's sending a gift of money to sons and daughters of members serving in the armed forces, money was given to each mother to select her own gift to send.
The boys in Viet Nam have more need for goodies than for money at this time. Irene Kreuger has a son there.
The December meeting will be a potluck. All are asked to be at the hall at 11 a.m. and remember to bring an exchange gift and a gift for each Secret Pal.
The January card party will be at the home of Margaret Kahal. Co-hostesses with Margaret will be Irene Kreuger and Mary Jo Brown.
