THE FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP Civil Defense course in emergency medical procedures elapsed 12 weeks of classes recently with the presentation of diplomas. The medical emergency course, sponsored by the Oakland County Civil Defense office, was taught by Mrs. William Libby, RN (second

Girl Scout News

To Mrs. Georgia Dennis, our deep sympathy on the death of her mother, Mrs. George Scanlan, on November 4. The yellow Girl Scout rose was sent her from Southeast Neighborhood. I'm sorry the news of this is so late, but I only heard on Friday. Those of you who didn't know, can reach Georgia, at night time, for she is working.

The turnout for the film on Senior Roundup on November 30 was very poor. It is a shame for you wanted the film shown, and then for all three neighborhoods only 25 took time to come. The senior girls had a very nice program, and their homework waited, so sure of a good turnout. Bonnie Breeze of North Farmington Senior troop, and Vicki Papke showed slides on the "Little Roundup" they attended in Traverse City last August. Mrs. Marge Schulkins then had the film on the Senior Roundup in Idaho.

SENIOR TROOP 238 is busy working on their "Promised Project." they dressed 25 Goodfellow dolls. They also made seven posters for the "Toys for Tots" teen hop on December 11. You'll see the lovely posters found town and the banner for the bandstand also found senior girls doing this. This has kept their leader Mrs. Bridget Reagan on a mad whirl. The troop is also, as in other years, collecting old eye glasses, so turn them in. The glasses are sent to people who don't have any. Investment for my own girls is long past due, but I'm finally getting it done. November 1 was the big day for the 15 new girls, who entered the meeting to find the room turned into a "Brownie Land Magic Forest Fantasy."

Trees were made by the girls. The Wise Old Owl, a big Moon, stars, pool with rabbits, birds and squirrels completing the scene. Five Junior scouts earning badge credit were a great help to me. Greeting the guests was Robin Roe, Troop 365, and Annabelle Robertson.

The Flag Ceremony was conducted by Susan Cleveland, with Deanne Roe, Debra Tomcek, Carrie MacAlarney, Diane Dorman and Karen Stevens, in the Color Guard. Donna Ross entered with the new girls and presented each in turn to leader, Mrs. Amy Charron, who placed the "Brownie Beanie" on each, hearing her "Promised" pinned her, and then Annabelle Robertson returned the newly pinned Brownie to her place. As each girl was pinned Paula Charron took her picture. Paula also made our guest book for all our coming events. The last four are all from Junior Troop 1038. The five Junior then placed the World Pin on three Brownies, each. While refreshments were served Robin Roe had girls play a game. Helen Robertson received her sister Annabelle's, pins. Cup cakes and coffee and kagalaide was then served. Mrs. Flo Nauman had made a Brownie Head Cake. This was sent to all personnel and teachers at Alameda school next day. Our guests, mothers, teachers, and principal, Mr. Norman Langer, and Mrs. Judy Cleveland, leader of Junior Troop 1038.

Other girls becoming Brownies were Karen Babcock, Jennifer Boize, Wendy Burken, Nancy Crockett, Peggy Haller, Kathy Homier, Romana Lueder, Linda Marvin, Marie Morris, Patricia Jackson, Sharon Penrod, Jean Marie Schumacker, Nancy Stamy and Sarah Thomas.

OUR SERVICE project is the 30 ladies at Kendalview Convalescent Home. We send each lady a card on her birthday. On Thanksgiving, we sent place mats, hard candy, raisins, apples and oranges, two center pieces, and for each a pine cone turkey. December 22 will find us singing Christmas Carols and giving our treat to them. We will be accompanied by Troop 527. This is our "Promised Project" for the coming year.

Brownie Troop 527 is finally under way with Mrs. Harold Stevens as leader and co-leader Mrs. Marge Salls. They had a mothers meeting on November 11.

Mrs. King is Driver Chairman and Mrs. Lower is Phone Chairman. We will plan some of our future trips together. SCRIBE PAULA Charron reports the troop meetings for November 30 and December 7 were held at the home of co-leader Mrs. John Hileman. They were glad to see Mrs. Reynolds back, and hope she'll be back to stay real soon. They are busy on Christmas projects making tree ornaments for the city tree.

Cadet Troop 332 with leader Mrs. Shirley Ford has been busy making Thanksgiving favors for the Retarded children at Northville Hospital. They chartered a bus leaving early in the morning for Ann Arbor. First stop found them at Ellen and Laura Starr's aunt's home. She told the girls about her three-year stay in Japan, showing slides and many lovely objects from there. After lunch there, the next stop was the museum at the University of Michigan where they were conducted on a tour. They collected money for a "Care Package" as their Christmas project. In January a Father and Daughter skating party is being planned. February will find them on a sleigh ride at Upland Hills. On Saturday, December 11, the whole troop went to the Detroit Institute of Arts for "Nut Cracker," presented by the Detroit Severo Ballet Co.

We wish you all at this time of year
A plentiful measure of Yuletide cheer!
