The Kimberley Christmas dance was a wonderment of beautiful ladies and debonair men in a setting resplendent with holiday glitter. Thanks to Kay Petris, Jo Olson, and Doris McChesney, the dance went off as scheduled. At intermission, the drawing of the four prizes occurred with the $50 first prize going to the George Pfaffman of Pipers Lane. Private parties dotted the area like lights on a tree. Among these, the Flatley's, Pagnucco's and the Kowalski's of Westmeath each had a cocktail party preceding the dance. Erva and Dick Smith entertained their companions at an "after-glow" in their home, and the Robert Matlen's had a scrumptious breakfast for the famished dancers. Serenaded with the "happy birthday" song, Bruno Pagnucco was surprised at the dance with a huge decorated cake with his many friends. Bettie Witmer found a lovely earring at the country club that she'd love to return to its rightful owner.

GEORGE and Shirley Pfaffman used their winnings to good advantage with a two-day holiday business trip to Cleveland, Ohio last week after their two daughters' flu seige had run its course. Shirley has become an aunt this month. Her twin sister, Lori Lee Hack, of Dearborn Towers, Michigan gave birth to 8 lb., 4 oz. Michael Zolotoff on Dec. 2 at Providence Hospital.

We have a new statistic here in Kimberley also. The Kenneth Jamison's of Pipers Lane

Court announce the birth of their fourth child on Dec. 7 at St. Mary Hospital. Mark Edward weighed in at 7 lbs., 5 ozs.

Lois Gessler of Westmeath underwent surgery on Dec. 5 at Providence Hospital and is now home on Wednesday, Dec. 15, with their gifts and Christmas cards.

PEGGY BAGNALL's father, Mr. Dundas Peacock, who resides with the Bagnall family on Fiddlers Green, was rushed to Beaumont Hospital on Dec. 9 for extensive care. Although convalescing satisfactorily, Mr. Peacock will face surgery this week.

Maynard and Mrs. Herbert S. Bagnall announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Lynn, to William Todd Sebright of Traverse City, Michigan. She is a junior at Eastern University and a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. A senior at E.M.U., Mr. Sebright, who is a member of Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity, will be teaching the blind after his graduation in June. The couple is planning a February 5 wedding.

Mary Lynn is now home for the holidays. Todd and his brother John, who is a student at U of M, were here last week-end along with Mrs. Bagnall's brother, Mr. Dundas Peacock Jr., of Penn. who came to cheer up his sick father.

WALLY and RUTH Edmonds were at home 5145 Maple Mile Rd. on Dec. 12. Wally was nursing his flu bug and Ruth was at her morning chores when a phone call interrupted her. Rita Bell of Channah called to give Ruth a chance to win the gigantic jack-pot of money (over $800 and many toys). Understandably, Wally took a turn for the worst when neither of them could identify the mystery tune.

Boy Scout Troop 389 held their first court-of-honor at the Nardin Park Methodist Church on Dec. 14 and 65 scouts and 4 over 200 guests and parents ob-ter a short stay at a hospital. Fortunately for Bob, surgery was not necessary but he's still not quite ready for nine holes of golf.

As of December 16, Kathy Colombatto is now officially a teenager. A family dinner was held in her honor on her day. Then on Saturday evening, the 19th, she was invited to a Christmas party given by her neighbor, Kathy Hall of Northwick. Kathy invited friends in the neighborhood and friends from school.

Celebrating Christmas birthdays the remainder of this month are Debby Setter, Debby Bramlage, Grace MacLeod, Ginny Roy, Kay Britton, Roy Schenkel, Betsy Nauman, Cindy Hug, Donna Hug, Maruene Lupia, Geraldine Lupia, Pam Heldt and Diane Reimer. And a few days after the excitement of Christmas, Mickey and Joe Colombatto have an anniversary to celebrate.

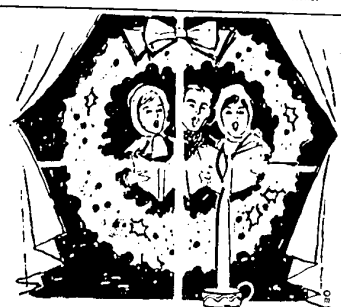

A Christmas recital was held by the students of Debby Mann on Saturday afternoon. Pianos were played, carols were sung and cookies and punch enjoyed. Those attending were Kelly and Colleen Pattison, Deanne Roe and Carla Andridge.

Friday, December 17, was the birth date for the new daughter of Betty and Dorvil Robinson. Eagerly and lovingly at home are brothers Roy and Jackie and sister Carol. Congratulations to you all!

Many notables assisted in presenting the many pins, awards, and honors earned by the industrious lads. Brownie Troop 122 and their leaders brought cheer to the patients at the Whitehall Home on Wednesday, Dec. 15, with their gifts and Christmas cards.

The latest newcomers to our area are Jerry and Hannah Purcell, moving into the former Wayne Jones home on Pipers Lane on Dec. 2. Previously, residents of Cartersville, Georgia, Jerry moved here to be a technical sales representative of Plastic Films Division of Union Carbide. Hannah enjoys sewing most of her own and daughter Kathy's, 3, clothes, but not much for Mark, 7, and Craig, 5, anymore. Jerry is glad to be in an area that is so sports minded.

Phyllis Buzzard of Wicklow has a problem. Son Norman who is now home from college is severely allergic to their all black 8 month old cat.
