Named To MSU Honors College

Douglas J. Bacon, son of Mrs. R. Bacon, 2545 Power Road, is one of 250 students students who have been accepted as new members in the Honors College at Michigan State University.

Honors College provides special academic programs for superior undergraduate students. All students who have a 3.5 (A-minus) all-University grade average in their freshman year are eligible for admission. As a member of Honors College the student has many benefits. He may waive all normal course requirements. Working closely with his own faculty advisor, he is given the opportunity to develop his own program of study suited to his interests and abilities. Each student of the college is in the academic upper five percent of the student body.
