Fellrath-Czarnecki Vows Said In Christmas Setting

A Christmas motif of red poinsettias, Christmas trees and a crèche at the altar of the Church of St. Colman formed the setting for the December 20, double ring wedding ceremony of Virginia Beth Fellrath and Walter Paul Czarnecki.

The Reverend Father Edward F. Konopka performed the 7 p.m. Nuptial High Mass.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Fellrath, 28271 Wellington Road, Wood Creek Farms, chose a Blanche wedding gown of ivory peau de soie fashioned with a controlled skirt. Hand corded Alencon lace formed the Empire bodice and a panel of Alencon lace graced the center of the chapel-length train. A flower headress of Alencon lace and peau de soie secured her bouffant veil of imported French silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white violets. The bride's sister, Mrs. Thomas J. Szarygietki, was her matron of honor. Attired in an ankle length, moss green, velvet gown in the Empire style, she carried a cascade bouquet of variegated holly with pale yellow holly balls.

ALL GOWNED THE same as the matron of honor, bridesmaids were Miss Mary Ann Czarnecki and Mrs. William Roddy; and the flower girl was Josephine Ellen ("Posy") Fellrath, sister of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Fellrath wore a silk, pale chartruse, floor-length gown with hand beaded bodice, matching accessories, feather headpiece and moss green or coffee brown, velvet trimmed gown with iridescent beading, black accessories and pale yellow rosebuds on her handbag.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Czarnecki, 20142 Riopelle, Detroit, chose Don B. Gill as best man; and ushers were Joseph W. Louiselle, Jr., Erik Smith, Richard A. Fellrath, Jr., and Robert Debulda, Jr.

David Riley, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

Following the ceremony, a dinner reception was held at Rotunda Country Inn, Pine Lake.

The bride, employed as a secretary at Ford Motor Company, Witom, is a graduate of Our Lady of Sorrows High School and University of Detroit. Her husband, a graduate of U. of D. High School, University of Detroit and Wayne State University, is employed at the Fredrick S. Yaffe Advertising Agency. They plan to make their home in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Mearl McLaughlin, 22482 Orchard Lake Road, Farmington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathleen M., to Max L. Bidwell, son of Mrs. John Bidwell and the late John Bidwell of Grand River Avenue, Brighton, Michigan. The bride-elect is a graduate of Farmington High School. The prospective bridegroom attends Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo. An August wedding is planned.

Celebrate 60th Wedding Anniv.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul LeChavallier, 20477 Beech Daly, celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary on November 13, and a High Mass was offered at St. Agatha Roman Catholic Church to celebrate the occasion.

A reception was held for family and friends. The couple have 10 children, Paul, Emil, Joseph, Peter, Anthony, Frank, Rose Brooks, Mrs. Mary Rose Brooks and Mrs. Lorraine Boomgaard; 43 grandchildren; and 39 great-grandchildren.

At a 25th Year Class Reunion Funniest Things Can Happen

(Editor's note: This article is reprinted from a California newspaper. The writer, Mrs. Mary Redding Hanson, relates an unusual experience which occurred while she and her husband were in Farmington last summer to attend the 25th year reunion of the Farmington High School (Class of 1940). Mrs. Hanson's column, "Koffee Klatch", reveals for the first time a story that would make the best situation comedy writers envious.)

When my husband steals a car he becomes the master of them all. He yokes the city manager's car out of the police lot and then proceeds to park it nonchalantly, in front of the local judge's house.

Chuck had never visited the scene of my high school days, but Farmington, Michigan, will long remember him after I've been completely forgotten.

First, we were at the police station because a boy on a bicycle had ridden in front of our (luckily) slow-moving car on an infrequently traveled road. Although the boy was, fortunately, uninjured, we went immediately to the police station to fill out the necessary forms.

After we left the station, Chuck got into the car, drove over to our friend's home (Judge Huelt's) and later to the motel where we were staying.

He became quite annoyed when the key to the car's trunk did not fit, but he put the baggage in the back seat and again we drove to our friend's house.

Fortunately he discovered, and thought strange, that the gas tank was nearly empty. At the station he realized that he had taken, not the rented Chevrolet, but the Pontiac of no less than the Farmington city manager. Although of different makes, both cars were the same size and color, and the same key fit both the door and ignition of both cars!

Had he not discovered his mistake in time, he would have been picked up by the Michigan Highway Patrol as a car thief. The city manager, thinking his car, stolen, had already notified the officers and an alert was out for the "stolen" car.

And, as the city manager commented, Chuck would have had a "hard time explaining what he was doing in my car."
