

Bridge Party Held by Club New Year's Eve

Leon Haskin's clever sketches of the ladies playing bridge added much to the fun and gaiety of LaPaloma Bridge Club's New Year's Eve party held at the club house, 5330 Middlebelt Road.

Everyone had a delightful evening of good bridge and good food.

North-South winners were Mrs. Charles Patrick and Mrs. Ernest Guy. East-West winners were Dr. and Mrs. Carl Bolton. Other winners of the evening were Mrs. Leon Haskin and Dr. Erich Nasti, Mr. Ernest Guy and Dr. Charles Patrick, Mr. and Mrs. David Bunkirk, Mrs. Thomas Hollis and Mrs. Eleanor Haack, and Mrs. Don Bowen.

LAST SUNDAY'S winners were: North-South, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Canady; East-West, Mrs. Clarence Johnson and Mrs. James Kelley; and others included Mr. Claude Bennett and Mrs. Sally Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Don Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. Burnett Heck, and Mrs. Robert Lockwood and Mrs. Thomas Hollis.

On Friday, January 14, the LaPaloma Club is having an open pairs club championship with beautiful trophies and extra point awards. Jan. 16 is Regular Sunday masterpoint.

The LaPaloma Club holds games every Friday night at 8 p.m., Sunday night at 6 p.m. For information call MA. 6-6425.

The bridegroom chose his cousin, Allen Williams of Darien, Wisconsin, to be his best man. Ushers were brothers of the bride, William Harlow and James Harlow of Farmington, and Barry Beals of Rockville, Maryland.

The mother of the bride wore a long-sleeved, green brocade gown with beige accessories. Her corsage was of green cymbidium orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore a two-piece beige dress with green accessories. She also wore a green cymbidium orchid.

Mrs. Virginia Sutesman of Cheboygan, Michigan, sang "Because," "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer." The organist was Thomas Burns of Huntington Woods, Michigan.

The bride is a 1964 graduate of Farmington High School. The bridegroom is a graduate of Darien-Delavan high school and the Bulova School of Watchmaking, Woodside, New York. He is associated with the Bulova Watch Company.

After a brief honeymoon out west the young couple will be at home in Delavan, Wisconsin, where the bridegroom is self-employed.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Harlow of Farmington and Mr. and Mrs. Eldon McQualley of Delavan, Wisconsin.

AAUW Invites Public To Hear Dr. M. Coveny

Dr. Milton Coveny will speak on the subject "Revolution in Modern China" at 8 p.m., Wednesday, January 19, at the North Farmington High School, 3290 W. 13 Mile Road. This lecture, open to the public without charge, is sponsored by the American Association of University Women, Farmington Branch.

Dr. Coveny, Associate Professor of History at Wayne State University, has long been interested in Oriental History, an interest culminating in his latest book, "Oriental Traditions." Dr. Coveny holds degrees of B.A. and M.A. from Wayne State University and Ph.D. from the University of Michigan. A member of the American Historical Association and Phi Beta Kappa, he is a popular speaker throughout the state.

Mrs. Edge Cope, President of the Farmington Branch, will welcome the assembly, and Mrs. Thomas Czubiak, Vice President, will introduce the speaker. Following Dr. Coveny's talk, a coffee hour will be held.

The Hospitality Committee for this meeting will consist of Mrs. Clayton Timmons, chairman; Miss Louella Arnold; Mrs. Wendell Brown, Mrs. Donna B. Dates, Mrs. Ernest Hickman, Mrs. William G. Johnson, Mrs. Kenneth Lachmann, and Mrs. Donald McCracken.

Patricia A. Harlow Becomes Dec. Bride

At a 6:30 candlelight service on December 27, at First Baptist Church, Patricia Alice Harlow became the bride of Larry D. McQualley of Delavan, Wisconsin. The Rev. Donald C. Webber, uncle of the bride from Holland, Michigan performed the ceremony assisted by Rev. Walter C. Ballagh, pastor of the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white velvet gown with a portrait neckline and long sleeves. The skirt was fashioned slim in front with fullness in back. A velvet applique cummerbund and a sash embroidered in pearls held the chapel train in place. She wore a double crowned pearl head piece with a finger-tip veil and carried a white orchid surrounded by white carnations and pine on a red Bible.

Diana Rosich of Calumet, Michigan was honor maid. She wore moss green velvet with an empire waistline accented in satin of the same shade. She carried a bouquet of white poinsettias, pine and green Christmas balls. Debbie McQualley, sister of the bridegroom and Virginia Duncanson of Farmington were bridesmaids. They wore cranberry red gowns styled like the maid of honor's and carried white poinsettias, pine and red Christmas balls.

THE TWO FLOWER girls, Lori Danahy of Detroit, and Janie Harlow of Warren, cousins of the bride, were dressed in mistletoe green velvet with cranberry ribbon sashes. They carried baskets of white carnations, pine and red Christmas balls.

The bridegroom wore a green cymbidium orchid. The bridegroom's mother wore a two-piece beige dress with green accessories. She also wore a green cymbidium orchid.

Mrs. Virginia Sutesman of Cheboygan, Michigan, sang "Because," "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer." The organist was Thomas Burns of Huntington Woods, Michigan.

The bride is a 1964 graduate of Farmington High School. The bridegroom is a graduate of Darien-Delavan high school and the Bulova School of Watchmaking, Woodside, New York. He is associated with the Bulova Watch Company.

After a brief honeymoon out west the young couple will be at home in Delavan, Wisconsin, where the bridegroom is self-employed.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Harlow of Farmington and Mr. and Mrs. Eldon McQualley of Delavan, Wisconsin.
