

Local Women's Civic Club Reviews Yule

Ending the old year with a very busy December, the Women's Civic Club of Farmington is eagerly looking forward to 1968.

Their Christmas Projects included a $10 donation to the Ruth Alden Dress Drive; an artificial tree, decorated with candy canes and home-made decorations for the Botsford Hospital, Pediatrics Ward; Santa Claus to decorate the Subdivision; home-baked cookies for the people at the Ardmore Nursing Home (this is a monthly project the Club has undertaken); a $20 donation from their own pocketbooks for Project Santa Claus; and filling the personal requests of four patients at Northville Hospital.

Stone Creek Chatter

PAT SZYMANSKI 476-6256

At this moment there are sounds from Barfield Drive which represent the fun and frolic of an old fashioned snowball fight. It's good to hear teens having a ball outdoors.

Among the missing from the sub this week are Jim and Karen Kelly who motored to Fort Lauderdale, Florida, for a second honeymoon. Karen was a quite ill this week and spent two days in the hospital. Doctor's orders were to take a rest which was exactly what was on the menu.

The Bourasses had an embarrassing experience recently. Their Christmas present Topsy, an Old English Sheepdog apparently mistook the Edison man for a fire hydrant. But Mr. fixit took the situation in stride as he proclaimed that Topsy could have chewed up his leg instead.

Congratulations to Mario Marino and Milton George who both received promotions at the Ford Motor Co.

New arrivals on Creekside are Mitch and Fran Shiffman who are expecting a new arrival themselves in February. Mitch works an industrial rig for the City Towel Service and is a football enthusiast from the grandstand. Fran loves sewing and skiing. In fact she admitted to meeting Mitch while skiing. Mitch says she picked him up off the ground.

Also enjoying their new home on Moran are Jack and Sharon McDonald. Jack is a salesman for General Tire Co. and Sharon for General Tire Co. and Sharon for the Lathrop school in Southfield. Their big hobby also is skiing.

Anyone interested in the propagation of good music may want to become a member of the Farmington Musicale. Membership is not limited to active musicians but encourages people who like to listen. The Musicale is also in need of someone to act as official babysitter for the club. Anyone interested in watching a few tots (4-10 in number) in an equipped nursery room for about 2 1/2 hours once a month please let me know. Since the Musicale's meetings are held on a Wednesday afternoon, teenagers or regular babysitters are almost impossible to get. This is a real S.O.S. Anybody who wants more information can call me at 476-6256 or Karen Kelly at 476-6258.
