Mrs. Edward P. Dawson of Shawassee is still wearing a back brace as a result of breaking her back last fall. She is recovering satisfactorily, which we are happy to report.

Diane Buckner celebrated her second birthday recently quietly with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ford J. Buckner, Jr., of Beacon Drive. No celebration was planned as Diane and her mother both had the 'flu'.

Mrs. James Lambert of Middlebelt Road enjoyed the week-end at the home of her son, Melvin Paquette and his family, of Detroit. On Sunday a birthday dinner was enjoyed in honor of Melvin and a birthday cake baked by his wife was the center of attraction. Mrs. Lambert is recovering from a serious ear infection. She has been plagued with illness since last fall.

The Lander Brothers share the spotlight this week as the Farmington Enterprise "Newsboy of the Week" selection. David (left) and Chris are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lander of 32236 Heathstone in Kendallwood Sub.

The Farmington Enterprise "Newsboy of the Week" honors are shared by brothers, David and Chris Lander, the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Lander of 32236 Heathstone in Kendallwood Sub.

David and Chris have 119 Farmington Enterprise customers in Kendallwood Subdivision. David is an eighth grader at O. E. Dunkel Junior High School and Chris attends sixth grade classes at Kenbrook School. Both boys enjoy sports with bowling one of their favorite pastimes.

A CAREER AS A sports-caster is what 13-year-old David feels he would like to pursue. His active interest in bowling (where he likes to keep status) and participation on the Dunkel football and basketball teams should go towards providing him with some idea of the demanding field of sports-casting. Driving a boat and spending time with his tape recorder also occupy his leisure hours and should fit right into his future plans.

Chris likes football, basketball and baseball but his ambition is to some day be a doctor. His hobbies also include building things, hunting and fishing in addition to bowling. He serves Enterprise customers on Bonnet Hill, Brandwine and Farmerville while brother, David, handles the deliveries on Craftsburg and Heathstone.

Enterprise Circulation Manager Fred Wright is happy to have the Lander brothers taking care of his Kendallwood newspaper routes and feels the job they are doing is also very much appreciated by their customers.

Surviving Master David are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Walker, Jimmy and Bobby; and sister, Patty, all at home. His grandparents, Mrs. Leona LaGrant, Mrs. Josephine, Mr. Harry M. Walker and Mr. Stephen LaGrant, Sr. also survive.
