Girl Scout News

The troop enjoyed the neighborhood-wide skating party on January 27, especially since they had to cancel the sleigh ride they had planned for the 28th of January because of the low-zero temperatures. Now they are all busy selling cookies and getting ready for their part in the Thinking Day program to be held at O.E. Dunckel Junior High School February 25.

FARMINGTON ENTERPRISE Circulation Manager Fred Wright is pictured above offering congratulations to the Cassidy brothers (L to R) James and Mike upon their being selected as the "Newspaper Carriers of The Week." They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cassidy of 30134 Briarton Drive in Farmington's Briar Hill Subdivision.

Newsboy of Week

The Cassidy brothers of Briar Hill Subdivision take over the spotlight this week as the Farmington Enterprise "Newspaper Carriers of the Week".

In making the announcement that the Farmington Enterprise Circulation Department had selected them, Wright stated "The Cassidy brothers (Mike and Jim) have done a tremendous job of providing excellent service to all of our customers in the Briar Hill area."

grade. They've made their home in Farmington for the past six years.

Hockey is a favorite sport of both of the Cassidy brothers. Mike lists baseball and basketball as strong favors while his brother favors football.

MIKE'S interests include slot car racing. He also enjoys playing hockey best of all his spare time activities though. He plans to go on to college and 13-year-old Mike and his brother, James, 12, deliver the Farmington Enterprise to a total of 158 homes in Briar Hill. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cassidy of 30134 Briarton Drive in Briar Hill.

BOTH MIKE AND JIM attend Our Lady of Sorrows School in Farmington. Mike is an eighth grade student and brother, Jim, is in the sixth

Kenbrook
Open House
February 15

An Open House has been set at Kenbrook Elementary School for February 15, at 8 p.m. The pupils have been working on special projects for the evening and parents are urged to attend to visit the classrooms and meet the teachers. Refreshments will be served.

The fluoride program at the school was completed on January 27. The health chairman, Ellen Clifford, reports that 169 children received treatment. This was about 75 percent of those who were eligible. Mothers who volunteered their time for the program and were thanked by the committee are Jo Jones, Pat Bancroft, Dorothy Forth, MaryJane Kramer, Frances Soave, Penny Howley, Jane Orman, Flo Scapelliti, Olive Paddon, Evelyn Scott, Delores Schaefer, and Libby Lucas.
