We are just wondering about the effects of the prolonged cold snap upon the members of our preschoolers. Keeping them cooped up can certainly make them restless and frazzle a mother's nerves. We'll probably all be ready for a little rise in the temperature so we can throw them outside again to work off their spunk.

There are certainly enough children out here, and their ranks have recently been swelled by two. Michael and Just Love made their first contribution to the buggy brigade on January 26 in the form of a sweet little six pound girl, who means as she shall be known as Lisa Ann. It looks as though Dennis and Sue Nieme have been thinking pink too. As of January 15, they have two little girls. Jody Lynn, who weighed in at seven pounds eight ounces was born at St. Mary Hospital.

SOME MORE birthdays, although not the original ones are being celebrated among us. Pat Schaefer has one on Friday, Dale Frye on Sunday, Joanne Rutkowski on Tuesday and Patty Howell next Wednesday.

Bobby Bonin who was nine today sported a large black eye patch on the occasion of his party last Saturday and so did all the other guests there. Pity the very one, from their eyepatches to their caps to their earrings. They played the games all pirates do, and fell to like lusty seamen when the ice cream and cake appeared. David Duda, Bill Binder, Craig Dunn, Ann Blackman, Mike and Pat Gorman, Gary Chapell, Martin Parker, Douglas Lukowski, Ronnie and Mark Goodaire, Chris Guzman, Tracy Ellis and Bobby Hiltch all enjoyed themselves immensely.

There was another party on South Stockton, this one of a different nature though. Lois Jensen was surprised last Monday night with drinks, an appropriate cake and congenial company at the home of Karen Gifford. Her neighbors, Nancy Crowe, Florence Stevenson, Mary Ann Ferrante, Sharon Picmann, Pat Micallef, Joanne Rutkowski, Eleanor Valle and Diane Johnson turned out for the going away party. Lois and husband Paul will be moving their two boys Paul, two and Tod, four months, to Sunnyside Estates in Livonia on Saturday. We want to join the girls in wishing them good luck in their new home.

Present Award To V.W. Campbell

Virgil W. Campbell was honored January 20 by the Travelers Insurance Company as guest of honor at a luncheon at which time he was presented with the 1965 Man of the Year Award for agents associated with the Travelers Northwest Agency Office, 24611 Greenfield Avenue in Southfield.

Field Supervisor Richard A. Patterson of Travelers stated, "Mr. Campbell is an outstanding example of the type of man who has associated with our Personal Lines Program."

Mr. Campbell is in partnership with his son, Gary, and works out of Travelers' Northwest Agency Office. He has been in the insurance business for the past 16 years. He is a member of the Farmington ELKS, B.P.O.E. No. 1586, and the Clarenceville Optimist Club where he is currently serving on the Board of Directors. Girl Scout Activities

By AMY CHARRON

SOUTHEAST FARMINGTON I'm glad for news from Southeast Neighborhood. We have news of their Birthday Party Plans, and it sounds like a real fun night. Their theme is "International Dance Festival," and already have plans well formed. On the party committee are Mesdames Emily Bowlick, Jane Mott, Marion Barringer, Ruth Van Der Heul and Lou Carr. Mrs. A. Zahler is the chairman of the group. The date to mark on your calendar is Friday, March 18, from 7 p.m. till 9 p.m.

Each troop will put on a dance representing their chosen country. Girls will be in their Girl Scout uniforms, and will wear either a headress, hat, apron, or some item to show the country. For the next few months the girls will be learning their dances. When the girls arrive they will be given a balloon into which they will put their name, troop number, address and anything else of interest the troop decided on. The balloons will be given out as girls leave the party. Then each will find a new friend in keeping with Friendmaker in Browline Pk. The new friend might return for a visit to the troop, or maybe something else will happen.

At the neighborhood meeting Mrs. Lenore Frontczak explained about the folk dances, and on Friday, January 21, the troop leaders met at the home of Mrs. Judy Zahler where they spent most of the day learning about ten dances each.

THE YELLOW GIRL Scout troop was sent to Mrs. Jack Nelson (Nancy) who recently lost her husband. We all extend our deepest sympathy to her. Welcome to two new troops at the Larkshire school, and we are glad to hear of the troop also starting at Edgewood school. Let us have your news. Junior Troop 224 of Middlebelt School had an Investiture for the Gordon Girls. The leaders, Mrs. Gordon Herva and Mrs. Paul Hoffman helped the girls serve their mothers punch and cookies.

THE GIRLS who received the Girl Scout pins were: Candy Brinkley, Beth Lord, Sury Blake, Kristina King, Cathy Lehman, Lin Fittsimons, Ann Sullivan and Nancy Stange. Receiving badges were: Laurie Barto, Back yard Fun; Cary Green, Art in the Round; Nola Stewart, Art in the Round; Margaret Otto, Sign of the Arrow; Fel Engelbrecht, Sign of the Arrow; and Cheryl Blee, Booklets. Their troop and Troop 421 from Wm. Grace School with leader Mrs. Edward Reske on November 18 went to the Consumers Gas Co. for a demonstration toward their cooking badges. On Nov. 27 the troop went to Twin Echo for a hay ride.

Suzanne Weber, a new scribe for Junior Troop 421, called me with news of her troop. The leader is Mrs. Edward Reske and co-leaders are Mrs. Howard and Mrs. Lydie. There are thirty-one girls in the troop. On January 29 a delightful day was spent at Upland Hills Farm near Oxford. The weather was ever so cold but ideal for the sleigh ride and tobogganing. All were ready for the dinner of spaghetti. The troop is working on their Promise in Action (all of us are at this). They are using Girl Scout Law 3, "A Girl Scout's duty is to be useful and to help others." They are making a Promissory Note to be given the Plymouth State Home for Retarded Children, promising that every six weeks the home will receive 35 trays favors.

BROWNIE POW WOW plans are in the making. Mrs. Lil Hines will be giving me more news on this.

There are twenty girls at the Sarah Plisk Home in Junior Troop 6, who are working on an sash as a service project. They don't have nearly enough knitting needles, and need wool to continue their work. These girls don't have parents to supply their needs as most of the girls. Can any of our readers help out? Call me, or better yet, the troop leaders, Mrs. Vivian Erickson, 476-2722, or the Girl Scout consultant Mrs. Olga Weir, 476-5773.
